JUSTICE-INVOLVED RED RIBBON WEEK — CHILDREN'S SERIES

Pip Fox Looks to Tomorrow

(Friday Theme: Relapse Prevention, Resilience & Second Chances)
A story about relapse prevention planning, resilience, and believing in second chances.

Winding Forest Trails

Pip the red fox loved running along the forest paths. But sometimes, he worried about taking the wrong turn. Today was Friday of Justice-Involved Red Ribbon Week—Future & Resilience Day!

The Safety & Sunshine Plan

Big Brother Fox unrolled a special scroll. 'Pip, to stay on the right track, we make a Safety & Sunshine Plan! It helps us know what to do if we ever run into tricky triggers or hard days.'

Three Steps to Stay Safe

Together, they wrote Pip's 3-step plan:

1. STOP and take a deep breath when stressed.
2. CALL a trusted helper right away.
3. CHOOSE a safe, healthy activity like running or drawing.

Believing in Second Chances

Pip asked softly, 'What if someone made a mistake before?' Big Brother Fox smiled warmly. 'Everyone deserves a second chance, Pip. Mistakes don't define who we are. What matters is learning and stepping forward.'

Writing My Own Story

Pip recited his favorite Justice-Involved Red Ribbon Week phrase out loud: 'I am more than my past. I am still writing my story!' His heart filled with confidence and hope.

Gathering in the Meadow

At the forest meadow, all the animals gathered—Leo, Maya, Barnaby, Ella, and Pip! They wore their red ribbons high to celebrate a full week of safety, family pledges, open talks, and bright futures.

A Healthy Tomorrow

Pip took a deep breath of fresh air and ran down the sunlit path. He had a solid plan, a supportive family, and a brave heart. Pip was ready for a wonderful, healthy tomorrow!
