- Merchandise/Ads/Prints: +100% of price. Please discuss this with me in advance if you plan to use my Art in this regard.
- You may edit the art, use as a PFP or on Social Media, print for yourself, but Do Not Claim the art as your own.
- I Can't start until payment is fully made. 100% payment up front before I start the commission. I'll send an Invoice through Pay-Pal or you can send the payment through Ko-Fi.
- Prices are FINAL. I will adjust them as I see fit.

Important

- Please provide a good reference sheet! I work better with visuals than words. I want to get this as accurate as possible while still delving into my own style for this!
- The art you receive will be digital, and will not be made physical.

- The Base price Is for Personal use, but prices will increase if you plan to use these for commercial use.
- Please send a DM to me through my Bluesky or Pass me an Email over at pepperchessur@gmail.com for commission requests. Please have references ready.
- We will talk about details and the price of the commission.

Once I receive payment, I will begin to sketch and send you the 1st rough sketch. I will send WIP images periodically.

Major changes are allowed during the sketch phase, but once you've approved the final sketch, major revisions will require a fee. Small revisions are OK, but too many will result in a fee as well. Ko-Fi buyers, send me a Ghost and a cat emoji to tell me you've read this.

Once finished, the Piece will be sent to you via DM, Discord &/Or Email.

I'm not a machine, so please be patient with me as I work on your commission. If you rush me I will refund you fully, no questions asked.

I'm not comfortable with rush orders yet, so if you have a hard deadline, I'm not the artist for you. I apologize.

I plan to stream some orders, so if you would prefer me to notify you when I do or rather I don't, feel free to poke me!

Refunds

Refunds will be on a case-by-case basis. If I have not yet started, I will refund you in full. If I have started the sketch phase, you will receive 75% of your refund back. 50% if it's beyond the sketch phase.

You will not receive a refund if the work has been completed.

If I need to cancel the refund myself due to time or matters beyond my control, I will notify you and refund in full.

Please understand that if you're not financially stable, you should save your money and return another time. If you pay me only to refund me when you don't have enough and I'm already halfway through your commission, I cannot refund you in full.

By Commissioning me, you agree to all TOS and Rules.
