

Week 4 - A Window & A Mirror

GROUP QUESTIONS

Read Jonah 4:1-11

- Have you ever been angry at God and thought that He did something that was ‘very wrong’?
- Have you ever experienced the ‘gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abounding in love, a God who relents from sending calamity’?

This book of the Bible serves as a window and a mirror into our own lives, and so we can see ourselves in Jonah's story.

WE ARE A WORK IN PROGRESS

Read Philippians 1:6

- Think back to where you were and what you were like when you first met Jesus. What has changed since then?
- What attitudes, thoughts, or actions do you still carry that you know need to change?
- What hope do you have from Philippians 1:6? What does that mean to you?

WE WANT TO LIMIT GOD'S LOVE

Read Jonah 4:9-11

- Are there people or groups that you find yourself putting limits on God's love towards?
- What would help you have compassion for them instead?

WE ARE IN DESPERATE NEED OF GOD'S LOVE

Read Matthew 12:38-40

- What are the parallels and differences between Jonah and Jesus?

Allow time for prayer requests - for members to share their needs and for others to meet them.
