

Práctica con el imperfecto y el pretérito en la misma frase. Traduce cuidadosamente estas frases con atención al tiempo de cada verbo en el pasado.

1. When I was 14, I fell down and I twisted my ankle.
2. When it was sunny, our friends used to play soccer.
3. It was 4:15 when their cousin (fem) came from the movies.
4. When your older sister was 15, she would/used to play the guitar.
5. When it was cold, you (s/fam) would drink tea with lemon.
6. It was 12:30 P.M. when the dog died.
7. The band played and everyone danced.
8. When my parents were young, they studied math in the library on Tuesdays.
9. When it would rain a lot, my brother and I would not leave (from) the house.
10. It was midnight when Susana and you (s/fam) arrived.
11. When you (pl/formal) were 12, you skied in the mountains for the first time.
12. In the summer, our family used to travel to Florida; Dad would drive and Mom would read to us.
13. It was 8:47 A.M. when the children opened the windows.
14. You (s/form) were sleeping when I entered and turned on the lights.
15. I was 16 when my father taught me how to drive.
16. The doctor (fem) was examining the patient (m) when the nurse (m) answered the phone.
17. José's legs used to ache him when(ever) he would do exercises on his bike.
18. You (s/fam) were sleeping while I was sweeping the floor.
19. The students were waiting in line when it began to rain.

20. Those (far) women entered, sat down, looked at me, stood up and laughed.