AIMD respects your privacy and is committed to protecting it. This Privacy Policy explains that our application does not collect, store, or share any personal or sensitive user data.

1. Information We Do Not Collect

We want to make it clear that:

- AIMD does not collect any personal information such as your name, email, phone number, or location.
 - AIMD does not collect or track your search history, medical information, or any other data that can identify you personally.
 - We do not use cookies, trackers, or analytics tools that gather user data.

2. Use of the Application

You can use all the features of AIMD, including searching for health-related articles, medicines, and salts, without providing any personal data.

All search activities happen locally on your device or via publicly available data sources. We do not store or link your searches to any identity.

3. Third-Party Services

AIMD does not use third-party analytics or advertising tools that collect user information. If, in the future, we integrate any such third-party services, this Privacy Policy will be updated and clearly disclosed to users.

4. Data Security

Since AIMD does not collect or store user data, there is no risk of unauthorized access, alteration, or misuse of personal information through our app.

5. Children's Privacy

Our application is suitable for general audiences and does not knowingly collect any information from children under 13 years of age.

6. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements.

The latest version will always be available within the app.
