

Hi, Dalton!

I hope your day is going better than the year 2020 😊

I was looking for some investment tips when I came across your YouTube page and I found myself spending a few moments there.

Coming back from your latest video, I was impressed by how easily you explained complex concepts like Dividend Yield and Reinvestment plans.

You managed to do it in a way in which it's easy for your audience to understand your point of view, while also caring about its time and attention span.

From there I checked your website for more content when I found a Discord membership available to purchase.

All in all, the process gave me a “this business really cares about its customers” vibe. I feel like you might have a natural desire to help people achieve greater success with investing.

Still, there are a few ways in which you can take advantage of the current algorithm and direct more traffic toward your page.

I will attach a piece of copy specific to your business so you can have a better understanding of a few ways you can attract more customers which can provide long-term lifetime value for your product.

Here's a cool ending to this mail:

May the force be with you.

Daniel
