Statement of Originality, Authorship, Copyright, Use of Artificial Intelligence Content Generation —AICG— Tools, and Non-Exclusive Publication License

In accordance with the editorial management criteria of the journal Scientia et PRAXIS (hereinafter, the Journal), published by the Academia Mexicana de Investigación y Docencia en Innovación, S.C. (AMIDI), the undersigned author(s) declare, under oath, that the scientific article identified below:

OJS manuscript ID:
Submission date:	/ / 20
Acceptance date:	/ / 20
Spanish title:	“ ”
English title:	“ ”

hereinafter referred to as the Work, is the result of original, unpublished, intellectual, and academic work. The author(s) further declare that the Work has not been previously published and is not simultaneously under review by another journal, publisher, formal publication repository, or academic outlet with equivalent publication purposes.

The author(s) declare that the Work has been prepared in accordance with the principles of academic integrity, editorial ethics, and good practices in scholarly publishing; that it does not involve plagiarism, improper self-plagiarism, fabrication, falsification, data manipulation, undeclared use of sources, or any other practice contrary to academic ethics; and that all sources used have been properly cited and referenced.

The author(s) acknowledge that they fully retain copyright over the Work. Consequently, this statement does not constitute an assignment or exclusive transfer of economic rights, but rather a non-exclusive authorization for publication granted to the Journal and to AMIDI for the editorial, academic, scientific, cultural, technological, preservation, interoperability, and indexing purposes of the publication.

Through this authorization, the author(s) grant the Journal the right of first publication and a non-exclusive, royalty-free, indefinite, national and international license to editorially review, edit, typeset, publish, reproduce, distribute, digitally preserve, publicly communicate, index, assign a Crossref DOI, deposit metadata, include the Work in digital preservation systems, and disseminate it through repositories, databases, catalogues, indexing services, academic platforms, and national and international digital media, always with due recognition of the authorship of the Work.

The author(s) agree that, once published, the Work will be distributed under the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC 4.0), which allows users to copy, share, redistribute, adapt, and build upon the content for non-commercial purposes, provided that proper credit is given to the author(s) and to Scientia et PRAXIS as the editorial source.

The author(s) declare that they hold the necessary rights, permissions, or authorizations to include in the Work any image, table, figure, instrument, dataset, excerpt, graphic material, audiovisual material, or any other content protected by copyright or third-party rights. In the event of any claims related to such materials, responsibility shall lie with the author(s), unless a cause directly attributable to the Journal is demonstrated.

If Artificial Intelligence Content Generation —AICG— tools have been used, the author(s) declare that such use has been disclosed in accordance with the Journal's AICG Policy and that they retain full human responsibility for the accuracy, originality, integrity, citation, academic validity, and traceability of the Work. The author(s) further acknowledge that AICG tools cannot be listed as authors and cannot replace the intellectual, ethical, and academic responsibility of the human author(s).

The author(s) acknowledge that the academic publication of the Work entails its incorporation into the editorial, scientific, and documentary record of the Journal. Therefore, any subsequent request for correction, update, retraction, withdrawal, or substantial modification shall be processed in accordance with the editorial, ethical, and digital preservation policies of Scientia et PRAXIS, as well as international good practices in scholarly publishing.

Finally, the author(s) state that they are aware of and accept the editorial policies of the Journal, including those related to open access, copyright, Creative Commons licensing, editorial ethics, peer review, digital preservation, interoperability, originality, authorial responsibility, and the use of Artificial Intelligence Content Generation —AICG— tools, when applicable.

If this statement is signed only by the corresponding author, that person declares, under oath, that they have the express authorization of all co-authors to submit the Work to the Journal, accept its editorial conditions, authorize its publication under
