Server Etiquette

[Section A]

Chat [Discord or In-Game, voice or text, DM or not] Etiquette & Maturity

1. Be mature when in situations that require maturity [talking to staff, while in war, etc.]
2. No breaking Discord Community Guidelines or Discord ToS
 - Anything racist or discriminatory against any group of people is against Guidelines and will get you banned and reported to Discord directly.
 - We will be very strict about discriminatory and racist behavior during Season 3, and we realize we haven't been the best at this in the past. Zero tolerance policy this time around.
 - If there was no admin or mod in the call, staff will rely on members of the call at that time as to who said what. If you lie to staff, it's punishable, so don't do it.
3. UNLESS IN #nsfw, in NSFW VC, or not in the official Cool SMP Discord or Minecraft server [DMs on MC do not count], no excessive NSFW

- “excessive NSFW”: Based on this scale, a medium or above, swearing or sexual
4. If there is a chat report that needs to be resolved, send screenshots and ID’s [hold “Shift” on a message, and press “Copy ID”] ASAP to any online member of staff.
 5. Unofficial Discord servers about Cool SMP
 6. Follow channel-specific guidelines
 - Always read pinned messages before posting in a channel. [the  in the top-right on Desktop, and then press “Jump”]
 7. When in a REC VC, don’t refer to people by their IRL names, unless given permission to do so.
 8. Be respectful to all players, even if they did something you didn’t like. Insulting or disrespecting players (especially continuously) can get you muted or even banned. If you do insult a player, it is expected that you apologize either privately or publicly.

(Section B)

Common sense

1. Don’t do stupid stuff, and what goes around comes around.

 - This should be common sense, but you’d be surprised, speaking from experience
