“Reward - Мобильный заработок” Privacy Policy

TeamDevPro Limited based in UAE ("TeamDevPro Limited" or "we") present mobile app “Reward - мобильный зароботок” (“app”) is committed to protecting the privacy rights of our online users ("users" or "you"). This Online Privacy and Cookie Policy (the "Policy") has been created to inform you of how we collect, store, use and manage the information you provide in connection with any TeamDevPro Limited application or service ("Service"). Please note that the scope of this policy is limited to information collected by TeamDevPro Limited through use of the Service. This policy does not apply to the practices of third parties not owned or controlled by TeamDevPro Limited.

When you register for the Service, you are asked to agree to this policy and to the processing of your data, including your personal data, in the manner set out in this policy. In any event, any use of the Service will be deemed to be your acceptance of this Policy. If you do not agree to these terms, please do not use the Service.

You are advised to review this policy periodically as it may be amended from time to time in accordance with clause 12 below.

INFORMATION COLLECTED AND USED
TeamDevPro Limited's primary purpose in collecting user information is to provide and improve the Service and to enable users to easily navigate and enjoy the Service. This includes sending you electronic communications relating to the Service, which you may unsubscribe from at any time by following the instructions in such communications.

If you install any of TeamDevPro Limited's applications (Reward app), we may collect and record the information you voluntarily provide to us through the social networking site in accordance with its policies and terms.

The types of personal information collected in connection with the activities listed above may vary depending on the activity. Personal information may include

Your name;
User identification number;
Email address;
Non-Personal Information is information that, by itself, does not constitute Personal Information, such as your IP address (in some jurisdictions), but which may be considered part of an individual's Personal Information when combined with other identifiers in a way that enables identification of an individual.

In addition, we may obtain information from you through

Your emailing a question to our customer support;

Your applications on your device
When you use a TeamDevPro Limited application Reward or on someone else's site or through your mobile device, we may record information about the use of that application and we may collect other information that is visible on your social networking site in accordance with the relevant terms of use associated with that site.

Installed Applications: We or third party SDK (Vungle etc) may collect information about other applications installed on your device. This data helps us improve our app's internal analytics and functionality for embedded SDK,.

The Service also records information about your use of the application, such as your high scores or the length of your session with the application.

TeamDevPro Limited will never ask you for your credit card or bank account information, your login or password, or national identification numbers by any unsolicited means, including email and telephone calls.

User Data Policy IOS AND ANDROID PLATFORMS
When you play TeamDevPro Limited applications (“Reward - мобильный зароботок”) on your mobile phone or other mobile device, including iPads and tablets, we collect mobile device identifiers, including the Media Access Control (MAC) address and possibly the IP address. In certain applications, we create and assign to your device an identifier similar to an account number. We may collect the name you have assigned to your device, device type, phone number, country, and any other information you choose to provide, such as username, character name, geolocation (based on your Internet Protocol ("IP") address), or email address. This information is useful for troubleshooting and helps us understand usage trends.

We may collect your location-based information to provide you with an optimized application experience.

We do not share this information with third parties. If you no longer want us to track or use this information, you can turn it off at the device level. Please note that the application may not function properly if we are unable to identify where you are coming from (country specific).

We also create a unique user ID to track your use of our service. This unique user ID is stored in conjunction with your profile information to track the TeamDevPro Limited applications you play.

We may occasionally send you push notifications via our mobile applications to provide you with app updates, high scores and other service related notifications that may be of interest to you.

You can always opt out of receiving these types of communications by turning them off at the device level through your settings.

We use mobile analytics software to better understand the functionality of our mobile software on your device. This software may record information such as how often you use the application, events that occur within the application, aggregate usage, performance data and where the application was downloaded from. We do not link the information we store in the analytics software to any personally identifiable information you submit within the mobile application.

Like many websites, TeamDevPro Limited uses server log files and automated data collection tools such as cookies and web beacons (collectively, "Data Collection Tools") when you access our Service and/or use the Site. We link the information collected by these means to the personally identifiable information of our customers. These Data Collection Tools automatically track and collect certain technical information that your computer or device sends to our Site, such as your IP addresses, browser types, browser language, referring/exit pages, URLs, platform type, number of clicks, domain names, landing pages, clickstream data, pages viewed and the order of those pages, time spent on particular pages, application information, and the date and time of activity on our Service, and other similar information. In some cases, we may associate this technical information with your ID number for our internal use. By using our Service, you consent to our use of cookies, web beacons and data collection tools.

We use cookies for a variety of reasons, including to (i) analyze the use of our Site and Service; (ii) provide a more personalized experience; (iii) manage advertising; (iv) allow you to sign in to our Site and Service more easily; (iv) help make your visit to our Site and/or use of our Service more efficient and valuable by providing you with a customized experience and recognising you when you return.

We may also use web beacons or other technologies for a variety of reasons, including to (i) allowing us to know whether a particular page has been visited or an email has been opened; (ii) tracking pixels which allow us to advertise more efficiently by excluding our current users from certain promotional messages or identifying the source of a new installation;

You can set your web browser to warn you about attempts to place cookies on your computer, to limit the type of cookies you allow, or to refuse cookies altogether. We encourage you to visit the support pages of the various browsers you may use to learn how to block the use of data collection tools. However, you may not be able to use some or all of the features of the Site and/or the Service if you refuse or disable cookies.

PROMINENT DISCLOSURE

Prominent Disclosure for Installed Application Collection on Google Play:

At TeamDevPro Limited, transparency and user trust are paramount. We want to ensure that our users are fully informed about the data collection practices of our mobile application, available on the Google Play Store. Therefore, we provide the following prominent disclosure regarding the collection of installed applications:

Installed Application Collection Disclosure:

TeamDevPro Limited collects information about other applications installed on your device. This data helps us understand how you use your device and tailor our services to better meet your needs. Rest assured that this information is used solely for internal analytics purposes and is not shared with any third parties for advertising purposes.

By continuing to use our app, you consent to the collection of information about installed applications as described above. If you have any questions or concerns about our data collection practices, please refer to our Privacy Policy or contact us directly.

Please accept or decline Prominent Disclosure in app in the first screen.

THIRD PARTY SERVICES
Please note that third party partners/vendors, such as companies that serve advertisements on our applications or on the Site and/or the Service, may also use cookies or other technologies and these practices and vendors are subject to their own policies.

Our Services may include third party tracking tools from our service providers, examples of which include Google Analytics. Such third parties may use cookies, APIs and SDKs in our services to enable them to collect and analyze user information on our behalf. These third parties may have access to information such as your device ID, MAC address,GAID, geo-location information and IP address in order to provide their services in accordance with their respective privacy policies. This policy does not cover the use of third party tracking tools. We have no access to or control over these third parties.

Google Analytics

TeamDevPro Limited also uses a tool called "Google Analytics" to collect information about the use of this website. Google Analytics collects information such as how often users visit this Site, what pages they visit when they do so, and what other sites they used prior to coming to this Site. TeamDevPro Limited only uses the information it receives from Google Analytics to improve this website. Google Analytics only collects the IP address assigned to you on the day you visit this site, and does not collect your name or other identifying information. TeamDevPro Limited does not associate the information collected through the use of Google Analytics with any personally identifiable information. Although Google Analytics places a persistent cookie on your web browser to identify you as a unique user the next time you visit this site, the cookie cannot be used by anyone other than Google.

Google's ability to use and share information collected by Google Analytics about your visits to this site is limited by the Google Analytics Terms of Use (as amended for government websites) and the Google Privacy Policy. You can prevent Google Analytics from recognising you when you return to this site by disabling cookies on your browser or mobile device.

SHARING PERSONAL INFORMATION WITH THIRD PARTIES

Except as set out in this policy, TeamDevPro Limited does not share your personal information with third parties. If we offer services or promotions where your information is collected and used separately in accordance with a third party's privacy policy, we will notify you at the time of collection and you may choose not to participate in that service or promotion. We may also disclose your information to third parties if requested by law enforcement or other government officials in connection with an investigation of fraud, intellectual property infringements or other activities that are illegal or may expose you or us to legal liability.

We may share your information with third parties who perform services on our behalf, including payment processing, order fulfillment, data analysis, marketing services, email campaigns, hosting services and customer service. In the course of providing these services to us, these companies may have access to your personal information and are required to use it only in accordance with our instructions for the purpose of providing the requested service.

In connection with the operation of our applications, we may work with a third party to assist us in providing our service to you. We will share the information you provide to us through your social network, such as (1) your first and last name, (2) your profile picture or its URL, (3) your social network user ID, which is linked to publicly available information such as your name and profile picture, (4) the login email you provide to the relevant social network when you register, (5) app usage information with these third parties so that they can facilitate your use of our service and contact you about other apps that may be of interest to you, service notifications and to solicit your feedback and input. If you do not wish to have this information shared, please do not use our Service. If you no longer wish your personal information to be used by our partners, you may contact us at support@TeamDevProLimited.com and we will facilitate your request to the partner.

We may use and share with third-party advertisers (and other third parties) certain technical and other non-personal information to display general demographic and preference information about TeamDevPro Limited users. We may also allow advertisers to collect and share technical and other non-personal information with us through the use of tracking technologies such as cookies and web beacons. The information collected may be used to provide you with targeted advertising selection and delivery, to personalize your user experience by increasing the likelihood that advertisements for products and services you see will appeal to you, a practice known as behavioral advertising, and to conduct web analytics (i.e., analyzing traffic and other end-user activity to improve your experience).

Information about our users is an integral part of our business. We do not rent or sell your personal information to anyone. We will only share your personal information as described in this policy.

SECURITY

We have implemented commercially reasonable technical, physical, managerial and organizational measures designed to protect your personal information from accidental loss and from unauthorised access, use, alteration or disclosure. However, we cannot guarantee that unauthorised third parties will never be able to defeat these measures or use, disclose or alter your personal information for improper purposes. Please also note that email and messaging systems are not considered secure and we therefore advise you not to send us personal information by these means.

In the event that personal information has been or is compromised as a result of a breach of security, TeamDevPro Limited will promptly notify those whose personal information has been compromised in accordance with the notification procedures set forth in this Policy or as otherwise required by applicable law.

To protect your privacy and security, we will take reasonable steps (such as requiring a unique password) to verify your identity before granting you access to your account or the Service. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your unique password and account information and for controlling access to your email communications or interactions through the Site or TeamDevPro Limited authorized social networking sites at all times.

ACCESS, CORRECTION AND DELETION OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

TeamDevPro Limited takes your privacy seriously and operates in a transparent manner. With this in mind, you can request information from us about the personal data we hold about you and correct any inaccurate data we hold, subject to providing sufficient identification (to protect the privacy of others).

You may also change or delete any personal information by changing the relevant information in your TeamDevPro Limited account. However, deleting all of this information may result in your account being deactivated.

Please find all information and request form about Account Deletion here.

POLICY REGARDING CHILDREN UNDER THE AGE OF 13

TeamDevPro Limited's service is not directed to children under the age of 13, and TeamDevPro Limited does not knowingly collect or solicit personal information from anyone under the age of 13 or knowingly permit such persons to access our service. If you are under 13, please do not attempt to register for the Site or send us any information about yourself, including your name, address, telephone number or email address. If we learn that we have collected personal information from a child under the age of 13, we will delete that information as soon as possible. We recommend that minors over the age of 13 ask their parents or guardians for permission before sending any information about themselves to anyone over the Internet.

COMMUNICATION

If you contact us by email, we will collect your name and email address, as well as any other content contained in the email, in order to send you a reply. We may use the personal information you provide in your communications to contact and respond to you.

CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

TeamDevPro Limited may change this policy from time to time. Use of information we collect now will be subject to the policy in effect at the time that information is used. If we make changes to the way we use personal information, we will notify you by posting a notice on our service or by sending you an email. You will be bound by any changes to the Policy if you use the Service after such changes are first posted. If you object to any change, your sole recourse is to immediately terminate your account and cease using the Site and the Service.
