1. Introduction

- 1.1. This ruleset applies to all players competing in the TFT Rest of EMEA Golden Spatula Cup qualifier tournaments. The ruleset focuses on: tournament structure, player conduct, player eligibility, and our general expectations for good sportsmanship. These rules adhere to RIOT's global player policy outlined in their TFT Rising Legends EMEA rules & regulations document.
- 1.2. Sign-ups for the tournament are done based on a raffle system. Players are given "tickets" based on their rank, as so: three (3) tickets for Master, two (2) tickets for Diamond, one (1) ticket for all ranks below Diamond. If the number of sign-ups exceeds one hundred and sixty (160) players, the competing players will then be chosen at random by drawing tickets. The exception to this is all Challenger and GrandMaster players will be guaranteed a place in the tournament.

2. Format

2.1. Tournament Structure

The GSC#1 qualifier tournament will take place over two (2) consecutive weekends, consisting of two (2) qualification days on the first weekend, and a single qualification finals day on the second weekend.

The first qualification day will host up to one hundred and sixty (160) players, with the top thirty-two (32) players qualifying for the second day of competition after six (6) game rounds. After three (3) rounds, players placed 81st and below will be eliminated. If players declare they are dropping during the first three rounds, they will be evaluated as if they have 0 points for this cut.

Any players involved in a tie-break for the top thirty-two (32) cutoff will be added to the reserve list for day 2. In the event of a No Show (see 4.3) from a qualified player for round 1 of day 2, players on this reserve list will be offered the spot in order of the day 1 standings. If there are no players involved in a tiebreak for the cutoff, the two next highest scoring players will be added to the reserve list. If there is only one player eligible for the reserve list, the next highest placing player will also be added to the reserve list.

On the second day of competition the points are reset from the first day of play but will be seeded based on day 1 results. After five (5) rounds, the bottom eight (8) players are eliminated. After six (6) rounds of competitive play the top sixteen (16) will qualify for the qualification finals day. The reserve list will be populated using the same method as for Day 2.

The sixteen (16) players qualified for the qualification finals day will play six (6) rounds for the top four (4) positions that will qualify them to the Golden Spatula Cup. After five (5) rounds, the bottom eight (8) players are eliminated

2.2. Seeding

The first round is seeded based on the players ranked matchmaking ratings, on either their account from their most played region, with the highest ranked player receiving the highest seed and the lowest rank receiving the lowest seed. A snapshot of the players ranks will be taken once the sign-ups close.

2.3. Fixture Generation

Players in the tournament will be split into lobbies of up to 8 players each round. If there are not enough players to fill a lobby of 8 then players may be required to queue into matchmaking. The results of players not in the tournament will not be included when scoring the results of a fixture.

In a lobby of 8 players the fixtures will consist of the following:

2 players at random seeded in the top 25% of those competing.

2 players at random seeded in the 26 - 50% range of those competing.

2 players at random seeded in the 51% - 75% range of those competing.

2 players at random seeded in the remaining 25% of those competing.

For the finals this randomisation is not used, the lobbies are seeded purely in a snake format.

2.4. Scoring

Points for a fixture are distributed as follows:

1st=8pts, 2nd=7pts, 3rd=6pts, 4th=5pts, 5th=4pts, 6th=3pts, 7th=2pts & 8th=1pt.

2.5. Tie-breakers

The tie-breakers for standings are applied in the following order:

- a) Total Tournament Points
- b) Highest W/T4 Score (Number of Wins+Number of Top 4s)
- c) Number of 2nd/3rd/4th/5th/6th/7th places on the day
- d) Placement in the final/final-1/final-2/etc. game
- e) Initial seed on the day

For W/T4 Score, the number of Top 4s includes wins as well. This means placing 1st adds 2 points to this tiebreaker whilst placing 2nd-4th adds 1.

Tiebreakers c) and d) operate in the sequence of the lists. I.E for c), the number of 2nd places is evaluated first, then if still tied, the number of 3rd places. This continues down the list if the ties continue.

4.4. Pausing

Fixtures that are played on the Tournament Realm can be paused at an admin's discretion. If a player needs to get in contact with an admin, the player can pause the game by typing `"/pause"`. In certain cases an admin may reach out to a player through the in-game client to initiate a pause. Abuse of the pause feature will result in disciplinary action.

The maximum pause time per player is 10 minutes per game, but cumulatively 25 minutes max per player for the entire duration of the tournament (GSCQ Finals Day).

The maximum pause time per game is 30 minutes. For clarity, this would translate to a maximum of 3 player pauses at 10 minutes each.

Tournament officials have full discretion and authority to adjust pause timers on a case-by-case basis.

4.5. Result Submission

Result submissions need to be a screen shot of the final match standings. This only needs to be done by the two players who come 1st and 2nd in their fixture.
