

How do I like or follow a Page on Facebook?

If you want to show support for a Page and be able to see updates from it in News Feed, you should like it.

If you just want to see updates from a Page, you should follow it.

To like a Page:

1. Go to the Page.
2. Click  Like below the Page's cover photo.

When you like a Page, you automatically follow it, which means that you may see updates from that Page in News Feed.

Pages you like are listed in the About section of your profile below Likes. A post that you liked on a Page may appear in News Feed. You may be displayed on the Page you liked or in ads about that Page.

To follow a Page:

1. Go to the Page.
2. Click Follow.

When you follow a Page, you may see updates from that Page in News Feed.

To see the people or Pages that you follow:

1. Go to your profile and click About.
2. Scroll down to the Friends section and click Following.

Keep in mind that your experience may change as we test new features.

Follow and Unfollow an Organization on LinkedIn

You can follow or unfollow an organization on LinkedIn from its LinkedIn Page or through search. You can follow up to 1,000 organizations and get updates on key information that's posted.

To follow a company or school through search:

1. Access the search page from your LinkedIn homepage.
2. Click the More dropdown and select Companies or Schools.
3. Type the name of the correct company, university, or high school and press Enter.
4. Click the Follow button to the right of the organization's name in the search results list.
  1. If you'd like to learn more about the organization before following their Page, click the organization's name to see more details. You can click the Follow button near the top of the Page to follow.
