

Exercise: Choose the correct meaning of "must" in each sentence.

Read each sentence and decide if "must" expresses:

- A. Obligation
 - B. Certainty
 - C. Advice
-

1. You must wear a seatbelt while driving. A
2. She must be tired after working all night. B
3. You must try the soup—it's delicious!
4. He must finish the report by tomorrow.
5. They must be home by now; it's already midnight.
6. You must see a doctor about that cough.
7. We must follow the rules during the exam.
8. This must be the right address—they have balloons outside.
9. You must drink more water if you want to stay healthy.

Exercise 2: Fill in the blanks with "must" and complete the sentence.

Use your own words and make sure the meaning matches the function in parentheses.

1. You _____. (obligation)
2. He _____. (certainty)
3. You _____. (advice)

4. We _____. (obligation)
 5. She _____. (certainty)
 6. You _____. (advice)
-

 Exercise 3: Match the sentence to the function of "must".

Sentences:

- a. You mustn't forget to call Grandma today.
- b. That must be her brother—they look exactly alike.
- c. You must eat something before taking this medicine.
- d. He must submit the application by 5 PM.
- e. You must be joking!

Functions:

1. Advice
2. Certainty
3. Obligation
4. Certainty
5. Obligation

Exercise 4: Find and correct the mistakes. Some sentences are wrong, some are correct.

1. You mustn't to forget your keys.
2. He must not be at home—his car isn't outside.
3. You mustn't eat too much sugar.
4. They don't must arrive early.

5. She mustn't be tired; she just woke up.
6. You must not to be late for your interview.
7. We mustn't tell anyone this secret.
8. He must goes to the dentist.