

“Through the use of” and “By verbing” examples:

Through the use of this statement, Suzuki reveals the emotional impact that both climate change and poverty has on the world’s youth.

By shocking the audience with her profound sadness, Suzuki successfully appeals to the emotions of her audience and provokes them to take responsibility for making changes.

Through the use of this statement, Suzuki reminds the UN members that they have a responsibility to think about how their decisions will affect future generations.

By reminding the UN members of their responsibility, Suzuki hopes to compel change.

Through her use of repetition, Suzuki is emphasizing that even though she’s young, she can see that climate change is a problem that can no longer be ignored.

By highlighting her youth, Suzuki is reminding the UN members that the decisions they make will impact future generations.