

FAQ

What is the event?

This event is for pre-teen or teenage girls who have lost a parent. It will be a time for them to connect with others who understand what they are going through. We hope this is a time of fun and refreshment! Bethany Hamilton is coming to speak, and love your daughter!

Who is eligible to attend? And what is the selection criteria?

This event is for girls ages 9-18 who have lost a parent. Do you need encouragement, love, and assurance? If you feel that you can commit to being open and present during the day, this is for you.

Is it a 2-day event? Or a 1-day event? Do I get to choose the day I want to attend?

This is a one-day event. You can choose between October 21st or October 22nd, subject to availability! We can accommodate 12 girls on Saturday and 12 girls on Sunday. If you don't have a preference on the day, we would like to group girls by age.

Can I stay with my daughter?

If needed. If a parent / guardian needs to tag along, we will provide some activities and connection opportunities for all the parents who join. The goal is for the girls to branch out and make new friends.

What should I bring?

Please bring a swimsuit, towel, sunscreen and a change of clothes. Everything else will be provided including food and drinks!

Do you have any transportation solutions to and from the event house in Temecula?

No, but we will do our best to help you find a solution, if needed.

Who are "Bethany Hamilton's 'Ohana Four Seasons Alumni"?

This is a group of moms and daughters who have gone through Bethany's 'Ohana Mother & Daughter Experience. It's twelve weeks of live small group mentorship. Hearing from different speakers and Bethany Hamilton each week! This group has bonded together and wants to pour

OUT all that has been poured IN to them. Check out our website for more information on the 'Ohana Experience!

We will be commuting to the event and are looking for a place to stay overnight, what do you recommend?

Temecula is a beautiful destination! Here are a few places we recommend.

- Hilton Garden Inn Temecula
- Holiday Inn Express Temecula
- Check out Airbnb in Temecula

Why is there a cost to attend?

Due to the limited spots and the close-knit nature of the event, each attendee needs to commit to being there. Please reach out to us if this will be a financial burden.

What is the refund policy?

Refunds will only be issued if someone else is able to take your spot. EX: If you cancel 2 days before the event, and we have a girl on a waitlist who is able to attend, we will issue you a refund. If you and our team both can't find someone to replace you, no refund.
