

Hello everybody and welcome back in the class. Come right on in. You're welcome if you love truth and you love this great republic and you love the word of God, you are a welcome student in this class today. Hello, I am your friendly neighborhood professor, Professor Toto. Now, why do they call me that? Because just like that little dog Toto in The Wizard of Oz, the one that pulled the curtain back on all of the lies of the Wizard of Oz.

That's who I got my inspiration from because I love to pull back the curtain of lies and find the truth. That's what we do here at the Conservative College, which you are now officially a student of. Many of you have been so kind to ask where we've been and how much longer we're going to be in timeout on our YouTube channel.

I do believe in less than 24 hours, we should be back in the seat at the control room getting this Conservative College back on track and getting it ready for our future role in restoring the Republic. But thank you for your patience while we've been gone. It's been so kind to hear every one of you in your emails that you have sent and all of your correspondences.

Thank you from the bottom of our heart. But I did want to make this brief video to address an issue that I believe is of utmost importance right now in your life and in my life and in the life of the Republic for which we stand. No one was more disappointed on January the 6th and then especially January the 20th than yours truly.

Because there had been so much chatter among the prophets of God concerning the re-election of Donald Trump. As a matter of fact, I played you a video called letters from a prophet or I played you an audio rather of Kim Clement's prophecy concerning the re-election of Donald Trump.

Now, although we never ever ever spoke anything outside of constitutional law, we did bring his words to you to let you hear what he had to say. Now, many other prophets besides Kim gave prophetic words that Donald Trump indeed would serve two terms. Now, for those of us that love God, we love his word, and we love the gift of prophecy, we were all taken aback on January the 20th, and many of you are still dealing with the disappointment, the discouragement, and the unending questions that just won't leave your mind. Now, before I address the issue of the prophets and what happened, I want to address another issue. So many of you are wondering, why can't I just move on and accept the situation as it is? You know, many people have told me it's time to move on. But I want to say this to y'all that have that feeling in your heart, why can't I just move on? Because although it's natural to move on from an election loss, although it's natural to move on from being the losing party, there's something else entirely that we are dealing with.

It's not an election loss. We are dealing with injustice. And yes, dare I say, well, I better not say the word because some of you may share this on your social media platforms and I don't want you to get a black ball because of that. But we are dealing with the fact that something wasn't right and we know it. And you can't just ask us to let that go because injustice never gets let go.

It always abides in the heart of those that the injustice was done to. So this is what you're dealing with. If you're watching me and you say, "Why can't I just accept what's going on in America?" It's because you're not supposed to. You're never supposed to accept injustice. You're never exposed to accept illegalities. The moment you do is the moment you're no longer a proud American.

So it's okay that you cannot move on. But I hope that after this class today that you will not move on from the injustice, but that you will move on to a strategic plan to turn it around. That's really all we can do at this point. When we talk about injustice, what do we mean? Well, first of all, you never ever one time heard Professor Toto deal with such obscurities as voting machine error.

On this show and in this class, we never dealt with uh many of the things that you wanted me to deal with and there's a reason I didn't and hopefully now you know why. But there's something we did deal with and it's the law of the land. The law of the land is only as good as those that enforce it. So our injustice comes from the fact that there were two sets of rules for people that showed up to vote in person, people that voted by mail-in ballots.

I taught you what we believe to be injustice in the fact that everyone was told to mark their ballots as indefinite confinement tying that to COVID-19. So, I won't spend this show going through all the injustices, but we never had a day in court. We never had these illegalities dealt with, and that's why so many of you can still not move on.

But in this class, I want to give you a reason to never move on from this injustice, but to re-strategize and re-channel your energies now to the future. There's nothing I can do about the spilt milk. I don't know what's going to happen about the milk that has been spilled, but I know how to hold that jug tight to make sure that no more milk gets spilled.

So, I'm calling on all Republicans today, conservatives, members of this great army of patriots to redirect your focus. Direct your prayers to the injustice for it to be exposed, but direct your energies to correcting that injustice, and that's what I want to talk to you about right now. Many of you don't understand why the prophecies didn't come to pass, and I was right there with you.

After the election, I was ready to go live and lambast all the prophets. I was on that bandwagon. I was so disappointed in what they had to say. But today, sitting in my home, and I believe today is uh uh January the I don't know. I don't know what it is, but it's a long time after the election. And we're getting close to February now.

And I was praying in my home today asking the Lord what went wrong? What can I tell the people? And he gave me some scriptures that I want to share with you that I really believe they're going to help you a lot. These scriptures are found primarily in the book of First Kings. And the first one I want to read to you is a prophecy that was given by the prophet Elijah.

Now, the Jesus said there was never a greater prophet that ever lived than John the Baptist which came in the spirit of Elijah. But Elijah gave a prophecy in First Kings chapter 21 verse 19. He told uh Ahab, "Thus saith the Lord, in the place where the dogs licked the blood of Naboth, shall the dogs lick your blood.

" King uh King Ahab had committed a crime. He had spilled the innocent blood of a man named Naboth. And the uh prophet of God told Ahab in the same place that the dogs had licked up Naboth's blood, they're going to lick up your blood. This was a thus saith the Lord prophecy. But that did not happen. As a matter of fact, if you want to know what happened, you'll find it in First Kings 22 verse 38.

In fact, when King Ahab died, he died in Samaria, which was several miles from where Naboth died, Naboth's threshing floor. It was in a little town that was not even really close in proximity to where Naboth died. So, it seems like is indeed a false prophet because his thus saith the Lord did not happen like he said it would happen.

But, we have to be very careful. When we get a word from the Lord, listen carefully. It is not God's fault if we interpret that wrong or that word by our own agenda. It's not God's fault. It's not God's fault if we interpret what he says through the channel of what we wanted him to say. And this is exactly what I believe has happened with Kim Clement's prophecy, myself included.

Uh because of the human mind knowing what we want and yet many times failing to put it in the hands of the Lord because in fact Elijah's prophecy failed for a moment. But, in the fullness of time 14 years later his prophecy came to pass exactly the way God said it. And you can read about that over in the book of Second Kings chapter 10 uh chapter 9 verse 25.

Here's how that prophecy came to pass. When Ahab died his blood his son rose to the throne in his place. His son ruled in his place with his mother Jezebel which was Ahab's wife. They ruled together. This is Ahab's blood. My blood is in my son, the same blood. The father determines the blood type. My blood is in my sons.

So, this boy rose and because him and Jezebel thought that God's prophet was a flake, they made fun of Elijah because Elijah missed it. But a few years later a king by the name of Jehu rose up and he went to make war against Israel. He pulled and he they lured Ahab's son, his blood, to a place called Naboth's threshing floor.

And there Jehu pulled back his arrow and killed the son of Ahab, the blood of Ahab, in the exact spot that Elijah said it would be spilled. Therefore, the dogs did come and lick up Ahab's blood right where God said it would happen. Isn't that interesting how the word of God never fails? As a matter of fact, all of Israel knew that this was the fulfillment of Elijah's prophecy.

Because in 2 Kings 10:10, it says, "Know now that there shall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of Yahweh which Yahweh spoke concerning the house of Ahab. For Yahweh has done that which he spoke by his servant Elijah." When they licked Ahab's sons' blood up, they were licking up Ahab's blood. So, the problem was not that Elijah was a false prophet, but it was how his words were interpreted.

You and I would have interpreted the word of the Lord to mean that that was referring to Ahab. But God saw down the road. Now, I'm getting somewhere. Stay with me. It's another prophet in the Bible by the name of Elisha. He made a prophecy and you can read about that prophecy in 2 Kings 8:15. Uh the king of Syria, his name was uh Ben-Hadad.

And he sent his servant Hazael to inquire of the prophet Elisha whether he was going to live or die because he was very sick. So, Hazael went down to the prophet Elijah and said, "What does the Lord say concerning my master?" Elisha says, "Your Your master will recover, but he will die." So, Hazael went back to his master, but Hazael had an ulterior motive.

He misinterpreted the word of Elisha to the king. He said, "Elisha says that you're going to live." Well, that's not what Elisha said. You could twist Elisha's words to say that because Elisha did say he would recover. But your interpretation of God's word does not determine whether that word is true or not. So, in fact, Hazael took and killed the king.

He had an ulterior motive and used a prophetic word for his own agenda. We must be careful that we don't do the same, and here's why. Kim Clement, now I don't speak the other prophets cuz some of them did prophesy a back-to-back term for the president. I can't speak concerning them. But concerning the prophecy that we read to you from Kim Clement, Kim Clement said that they would cry, "Impeach! Impeach!" We didn't know at that time that he was prophesying about two impeachments, a double impeachment.

And in fact, that is happening. But in fact, Kim Clement prophesied that the president would serve two terms. He never said back-to-back. Now, I know that's not what we want to hear. That's not how we want to interpret what he said. But if we misinterpreted his prophecy impeach impeach, if we missed that and we all did, we never saw two impeachments coming, but God told us there would be two impeachments.

Impeach impeach is the exact words given. So, now we can only wonder, did we misinterpret with our own agenda what God said concerning our president? If we did, then that means that in 2 years from now, Donald Trump will return because the primaries begin in 2 years for the presidential election. And when and if he does, you and I need to be prepared for that moment.

We need to start preparing for that moment right now as I speak to you. Because in fact, Donald Trump has already set up an office called the office of the former president. It's brilliant. To continue his agenda is what he says. So, this man is going nowhere. And in fact, will be governing in a shadow government.

Now, what what do I mean by that? He is already going to work to set up the House and the Now, notice what's happening here. The House and the Senate, he has already, first of all, he just endorsed his first governor, Sarah Sanders. Thank the Lord in Arkansas. And now he is going after his political enemies in these House and Senate races 2 years from now.

So, he is setting up a government that will be ready to govern should should he run again in 2 years. And win that election, he will have a House and a Senate already in his corner. So, you and I have work to do. We have lots of work to do. The moments of crying have come to an end. It's time to strategize.

We must prepare the House and the Senate for the return of Donald Trump. I heard that on the day of the inauguration that President Trump's big thing was he was going to announce his presidency uh his candidacy for the next term. The only reason that didn't happen is because he didn't want to add fire to the impeachment war. The impeachment is already falling apart in the Senate as I speak to you.

The reason they want him impeached is because the forces of hell they've heard this prophecy. They know he's coming back. But this time he's not coming back with a house that's against him and a Senate that's barely with him. I believe he's planning to position the House and the Senate for complete control when he returns to undo the damage that Mr.

Biden is doing currently. So, I just want to encourage every one of you today. Don't ever give up on the miracle. Whether it happens in the time we want or in the time that God has preordained, we wait. We wait for it and we declare that the word of God never returns void, no matter what it looks like. So, be encouraged today.

Encouraged enough to return to the battle. I'm calling every one of you in Toto's Army, that small branch of God's Army that's out here doing our part to restore the Republic. I want to congratulate California. You guys have have uh reached over a million signatures now to recall your so-called governor there.

Great job, California. Also, we've had a major victory with uh Mr. Portman. I don't know if you've heard the news, but he's not running in 2 years. The reason he's not running is because he messed up. He flubbed up and uh not standing with our president. He already knows. No need to run. Ain't going to work.

We're going to fill a seat with a patriot. Now, talking about strategizing, September the 26th through the 29th, thousands of us, people like you and me, are going to the beautiful shores of Lake Guntersville, Alabama. We're not going there to cry. We're not going there to play the what if game and the why game. No, no, no. We're going to encourage one another and to strategize for 2 years from now to take back the house, the Senate, and to pave the way for the primary season to begin.

They must impeach our president. Don't you see? They see the handwriting on the wall. And I believe when he comes sweeping back in, it will be with a house and a Senate behind him. And you and I paving that way. For these 3 days, 4 days, and 3 nights in Lake Guntersville, Alabama, we're going to have strategy sessions, special speakers.

We're going to be laying out state by state how you're going to fit in to the re-election of Donald Trump. But more importantly, where you fit in in a plan that I've created called CAPS. We're going to put the the democracy to rest. You know, I was wrong on a previous video about CAPS. Many of you let me know. Thank you for that. You students keep me on my toes.

That's for sure. CAPS is to put something to rest. Well, we're coming to put the democracy to rest and bring the republic back. This TAPS program is a unique program that has been given to me, I believe, by divine inspiration to help reclaim our house and our Senate. I need your help to do it. I'll be back live real soon.

God bless you and don't you ever stop fighting for the right.
