Similarities and Differences Summary

(You can create a table here to show your audiences the differences.).

Platforms	Kinsta	HostGator
Best Users	Best for bloggers who are already popular and who expect lots of traffic plus incredible speed.	Best for beginners who want cheap hosting to launch their websites and who expect a handful of traffic.
User friendlies	A+	B
Prices/Plans	$5 for Lite plan $10 for Pro plan $50 for Premium	$4 for Lite plan $8 for Pro plan $34 for Premium

You go on and on as you want it.

So, Which Is Better? Kinsta or HostGator?

(This is where you tell your audience the uniqueness of each of them and the one you prefer – which is your first choice.

As you conclude each of them, ask your audience to visit the service or too. See below

Going with HostGator means that a blogger does not care much about advanced website building and facilities, does not care about the $3 revenue share and processing fees plus core online website infrastructures he or she wouldn't get.
