Good Works Scholarship	Virginia criminal lawyer Karin Riley Porter believes in advancing the cause of the criminal justice system and criminal defense services by ensuring that everyone within the Commonwealth of Virginia receives fair representation and that those who are dedicated to that calling can realize their full academic potential. One of the primary aspects of criminal defense is representing individuals in vulnerable situations and protecting them and their family's interests. Furthermore, many people who aspire to be lawyers or pursue other demanding careers fail to find the time to promote the good of others in their community. To that end, the firm is dedicated to providing educational opportunities for future lawyers and other college and university students who are also actively engaged in making their community a better place by leading and planning	Application	October 31, 2025

Hanif Michael Martin Scholarship Award	Hanif Michael Martin was a beloved brother, father, uncle and cousin who received his automotive mechanic certification from a technical college and passed away too soon. The automotive industry is a valuable pursuit that offers career stability and the chance to expand one's mind. Pursuing certification in the trades is a great alternative path to a traditional college degree. With shorter programs and lower tuition, the trades often allow students to start out in great careers with much less debt than they would have acquired at a four-year university. This scholarship aims to honor the memory of Hanif Michael Martin by supporting students who share his interest in the automotive field. Any underrepresented minority high school student who is pursuing automotive technology may apply for this scholarship opportunity.	Application	April 14, 2026
Chi Changemaker Scholarship	There are many teenagers who, despite their youth, have already made ripples of positive change in their communities and have dreams of making even bigger waves in the future. From food insecurity and education inequities to environmental challenges and health disparities, many different issues affect schools, communities, and the world.	Application	May 1, 2026

	Regardless of the specific cause, your passion and leadership are your greatest tools in creating a better future. Created by Claire Chi, this merit-based scholarship supports students who demonstrate significant social impact and will continue being changemakers. Any current high school student or 2026 graduate who is between the ages of 14-18 may apply for this scholarship opportunity if they have at least a 3.5 GPA, will attend a four-year college, and have nonprofit or volunteering experience. Leadership experience is also valued. To apply, tell us about a significant problem you have stepped up to address, what motivated you to take action, and how you would expand your work. Additionally, upload your resume.
Glenda I. Tanner Memorial Scholarship	This scholarship seeks to honor the life of Glenda I. Tanner, who believed that everyone should have the chance to attend college. Glenda was a lifelong learner with empathy for those who sought the same path. She was a voracious reader and often read multiple books at once. She also loved museums and any place where knowledge could be gained. Glenda took tremendous pride in her children's and grandchildren's success in education and life, and always encouraged them to go to college and find their path in the world. She encouraged curiosity across all subjects and simply wanted people to have fun discovering new things. This scholarship seeks to make college more affordable and accessible for aspiring students so they can fulfill their dreams in the fields they're passionate about.	Application	May 2, 2026
