

Dante's lore

Obviously, Dante likes gambling. But something is different, he never loses, he's always extremely confident and bold. Dante also has a disease on his right arm, bones in that area are much weaker, so it can be dislocated or EVEN ripped off easier than the left arm. Also, somehow he can sense cursed energy in others, perhaps because he uses it too, Idle Death Gamble (i know its stolen but let my oc have it ok). Even without hitting the jackpot Dante is dangerously strong, how? Because he enhances the right arm bone connection with cursed energy and makes it be sturdier, letting Dante do crazy moves. Such as throwing a fucking container at his opponent, or a 360° aerial axe kick 🤪, in his usage it's a dangerous move, so Dante uses it only in the time, when his life is on the verge.

Likes: money, gambling and OnePlus (yes)

Hates: absence of equality, lies and being ghosted, he'd most likely crashout lightly because of that.

That's all!
