

Workshop Information-

Explore the dynamic world of meteorology in this engaging and practical course focused on predicting weather patterns specific to Nebraska. Through Science on a Sphere datasets and hands-on experiences, students will gain an understanding of meteorological principles such as cloud formations, atmospheric pressure and precipitation patterns and their application to local weather prediction.

Number of Students-

20 Student maximum

Grades-

6th -8th

Cost-

$180

Amount of Time-

Half Day - 3 Hours

Where is it held-

MCC North Express Campus