

Questions you may be asked	Your Response
Collaboration
How did your individual and cultural identities inform your team's approach to designing your thriving community?
Student A, how did the group decide to include student B's perspectives in the final presentation?
Mindset
Student A, describe how your thinking changed as a result of this work.
How did empathy and imagination inform your process of developing your thriving community?
Creativity
What would you do differently if you restarted this process?
What opportunities exist for applying your learning in unexpected, practical ways?
Global Citizenship
How has your perspective or worldview changed as a result of your work on this?
Through this work, what opportunities can you identify for action?
Communication
What was your purpose and desired impact?
What did you anticipate the challenges of this project would be, and how did you manage them?
Critical Thinking
How did your team balance opposing viewpoints when creating your thriving community?
What are the weaknesses and strengths of your positions?	