

Make calls to all the representatives or just the ones who live closest to you using the numbers and scripts provided. The anti-trans college athlete bill is up for a vote in the House Finance Subcommittee on April 13. (10 calls)

Call Rep. Patsy Hazlewood (Hamilton County) at

615-741-2746 and say: Rep. Hazlewood, my name is _____ and I live in _____. Please, vote NO on House Bill 2316 on April 13 in the Finance Subcommittee. On March 31, the U.S. Department of Justice sent a letter to every state attorney general saying that discrimination against transgender youth is sex discrimination and that it risks funding for states participating in federal programs. Laws discriminating against transgender people will also generate expensive court challenges for the state. Please, leave the regulation of sports to athletic governing bodies. Thank you.

Call Rep. Charlie Baum (Rutherford County) at 615-741-6849 and say: Rep. Baum, my name is _____ and I live in _____. Please, vote NO on House Bill 2316 on April 13 in the Finance Subcommittee. On March 31, the U.S. Department of Justice sent a letter to every state attorney general saying that discrimination against transgender youth is sex discrimination and that it risks funding for states participating in federal programs. Laws discriminating against transgender people will also generate expensive court challenges for the state. Please, leave the regulation of sports to athletic governing bodies. Thank you.

Call Rep. Ron Gant (Fayette, McNairy, and Hardeman Counties) at 615-741-6890 and say: Rep. Gant, my name is _____ and I live in _____. Please, vote NO on House Bill 2316 on April 13 in the Finance Subcommittee. On March 31, the U.S. Department of Justice sent a letter to every state attorney general saying that discrimination against transgender youth is sex discrimination and that it risks funding for states participating in federal programs. Laws discriminating against transgender people will also generate expensive court challenges for the state. Please, leave the regulation of sports to athletic governing bodies. Thank you.

Call Rep. David Hawk (Greene County) at 615-741-7482 and say: Rep. Hawk, my name is _____ and I live in _____. Please, vote NO on House Bill 2316 on April 13 in the Finance Subcommittee. On March 31, the U.S. Department of Justice sent a letter to every state attorney general saying that discrimination against transgender youth is sex discrimination and that it risks funding for states participating in federal programs. Laws discriminating against transgender people will also generate expensive court challenges for the state. Please, leave the regulation of sports to athletic governing bodies. Thank you.

Call Rep. Gary Hicks (Hancock and Hawkins Counties) at 615-741-7480 and say: Rep. Hicks, my name is _____ and I live in _____. Please, vote NO on House Bill 2316 on April 13 in the Finance Subcommittee. On March 31, the U.S. Department of Justice sent a letter to every state attorney general saying that discrimination against transgender youth is sex discrimination and that it risks funding for states participating in federal programs. Laws discriminating against transgender people will also generate expensive court challenges for the state. Please, leave the regulation of sports to athletic governing bodies. Thank you.

Call Rep. Brandon Ogles (Williamson County) at

615-741-6808 and say: Rep. Ogles, my name is _____ and I live in _____. Please, vote NO on House Bill 2316 on April 13 in the Finance Subcommittee. On March 31, the U.S. Department of Justice sent a letter to every state attorney general saying that discrimination against transgender youth is sex discrimination and that it risks funding for states participating in federal programs. Laws discriminating against transgender people will also generate expensive court challenges for the state. Please, leave the regulation of sports to athletic governing bodies. Thank you.

Call Rep. Chris Todd (Madison County) at 615-741-7475 and say: Rep. Todd, my name is _____ and I live in _____. Please, vote NO on House Bill 2316 on April 13 in the Finance Subcommittee. On March 31, the U.S. Department of Justice sent a letter to every state attorney general saying that discrimination against transgender youth is sex discrimination and that it risks funding for states participating in federal programs. Laws discriminating against transgender people will also generate expensive court challenges for the state. Please, leave the regulation of sports to athletic governing bodies. Thank you.

Call Rep. Sam Whitson (Williamson County) at 615-741-1864

and say: Rep. Whitson, my name is _____ and I live in _____. Please, vote NO on House Bill 2316 on April 13 in the Finance Subcommittee. On March 31, the U.S. Department of Justice sent a letter to every state attorney general saying that discrimination against transgender youth is sex discrimination and that it risks funding for states participating in federal programs. Laws discriminating against transgender people will also generate expensive court challenges for the state. Please, leave the regulation of sports to athletic governing bodies. Thank you.

Call Rep. Ryan Williams (Putnam County) at 615-741-1875 and say: Rep. Williams, my name is _____ and I live in _____. Please, vote NO on House Bill 2316 on April 13 in the Finance Subcommittee. On March 31, the U.S. Department of Justice sent a letter to every state attorney general saying that discrimination against transgender youth is sex discrimination and that it risks funding for states participating in federal programs. Laws discriminating against transgender people will also generate expensive court challenges for the state. Please, leave the regulation of sports to athletic governing bodies. Thank you.

Call Rep. John Mark Windle (Overton, Jackson, Morgan, and Fentress Counties) at 615-741-1260 and say:

Rep. Windle, my name is _____ and I live in _____. Please, vote NO on House Bill 2316 on April 13 in the Finance Subcommittee. On March 31, the U.S. Department of Justice sent a letter to every state attorney general saying that discrimination against transgender youth is sex discrimination and that it risks funding for states participating in federal programs. Laws discriminating against transgender people will also generate expensive court challenges for the state. Please, leave the regulation of sports to athletic governing bodies. Thank you.