

Privacy Policy

TOV FLAIR2 provides the Folk Tale Quest mobile application as a free service available to users on an “as-is” basis. This Privacy Policy explains how information is gathered, used, and protected when you interact with the application. By accessing or using Folk Tale Quest, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to the practices described in this Policy.

Any information collected through the application is used strictly to operate, maintain, and improve the Service. We do not sell, lease, or distribute your personal data to third parties except as outlined in this Privacy Policy. Any capitalized terms not specifically defined here shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Terms and Conditions available within the Folk Tale Quest application.

Information Collection and Use

To ensure the proper performance of the application and enhance user experience, Folk Tale Quest may request certain personally identifiable information. All collected information is securely retained and processed in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

The application may also incorporate third-party services that collect and process data independently. Such services may include, but are not limited to:

Google Play Services

Log Data

If the application experiences a malfunction or crash, technical information may be automatically collected via third-party tools. This data can include your device's IP address, device type and model, operating system version, application configuration, the time and date of usage, and other diagnostic details. This information is used solely for identifying issues, improving performance, and maintaining system stability.

Cookies

Folk Tale Quest itself does not use cookies directly. However, integrated third-party services may use cookies or similar tracking technologies for analytics and optimization purposes. You may control or disable cookies through your device or browser settings, though certain features of the Service may not function properly if cookies are restricted.

Third-Party Service Providers

We may work with third-party companies or individuals to:

Facilitate and operate the Service

Perform specific functions on our behalf

Support application features

Monitor and analyze usage

These service providers are granted access only to the information necessary to perform their responsibilities and are contractually required to protect its confidentiality. They are not permitted to use the information for any other purpose.

Data Protection

We apply commercially reasonable administrative and technical safeguards to protect your personal information. Nevertheless, no method of data transmission over the internet or electronic storage is entirely secure, and absolute security cannot be guaranteed.

External Links

The application may contain links to websites or services operated by third parties. If you choose to follow these links, you will be redirected to platforms not controlled by us. We recommend reviewing the privacy policies of those third-party services, as we are not responsible for their content, policies, or data practices.

Children's Privacy

Folk Tale Quest is not designed for individuals under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal data from children under 13 years old. If we discover that such information has been collected, we will promptly delete it. Parents or guardians who believe that a child has provided personal information should contact us immediately.

Updates to This Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to modify this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be published on this page, and continued use of the application after updates constitutes acceptance of the revised Policy. Changes become effective upon posting.

Effective Date: February 12, 2026
