The Program:

Cyndy Ning is the former Associate Director of the Center for Chinese Studies at UH Mānoa and the current Vice President of SAAH. In July, 2024, she co-led a group of eleven high school students, including nine from Hawaii, on a two-week all expenses paid study tour to Beijing and Inner Mongolia, sponsored by China's YES (Young Envoys Scholarship) Program. Her presentation shows how China chooses to share its Intangible Cultural Heritage with visitors, as well as the results of its recent phenomenal development. Inner Mongolia is renowned for its landscapes, encompassing grasslands, deserts, lakes, and forests. To a large extent, it preserves the legacy of Genghis Khan and the Mongol Empire, as well as the cultures of nomadic herders and ethnic Mongolians.
