

Red Starting Deck Overview

Matchup/plan-dependant: Careless Musketeer, Pillage, Scorch, Bloodburn

Useful to play early: Nautical Dog, Mad Man, Bloodrage Ogre

Useful all game: Makeshift Rambaster, Charge, Bombaster

Spec Generalizations

Anarchy

Surprise damage from haste and tricky abilities

Blood

Suicidal attack, bonus damage from death, and kidnapping

Fire

Non-combat damage from abilities and spells

Example Tech Choices for Fire Game

Turn 1: Both Lobbers

Turn 4: Bamstamper Lizzo & Kidnapping

Turn 2: Bloodlust & Chaos Mirror

Turn 5: War Drums & Calypso Vystari

Turn 3: Bamstamper Lizzo & Molting Firebird

Suggested Workers

Scorch, Careless Musketeer, Bloodburn, Mad Man

Strategy Notes

Drakk's abilities and Bloodlust let Lobbers hit harder and give Firebird haste to destroy tech buildings. Don't be afraid to dump gold into Zane just to sacrifice him; he can make really big plays! Chip away at the opponent's base early on, and you can end the game sooner than you'd think.

Example Tech Choices for Blood Game

Turn 1: Both Crash Bombers

Turn 4: Land Octopus & Flame Arrow

Turn 2: Bloodlust & Kidnapping

Turn 5: Shoddy Glider & Desperation

Turn 3: Captured Bugblatter & Crashbarrow

Suggested Workers

Scorch, Careless Musketeer, Bloodburn, Bombaster

Strategy Notes

All your units either do damage to their base when they die or do a lot of damage before dying. Captured Bugblatter turns all that death into more damage, and spells let you sneak in more.

Example Tech Choices for Anarchy Game (WIP)

Turn 1: Lobber & Gunpoint Taxman

Turn 4: Disguised Monkey & Pirate Gunship

Turn 2: Lobber & Chaos Mirror

Turn 5: Pirate Gunship & Bloodlust

Turn 3: Disguised Monkey & Kidnapping

Suggested Workers

Scorch, Careless Musketeer, Bloodburn, Makeshift Rambaster

Strategy Notes

Keep the board clear of enemy units and heroes and build Tech 3 ASAP. Even if it gets destroyed once or twice, you can keep re-building for free until you can get a Gunship on the board.
