Loved the presentation Dr. Pham gave. I now feel better prepared to handle eye injuries after a fellow sister school had one athlete with a complete eye avulsion during baseball practice last year.

Topics:

nick- Mike Overman can you tell us your athletic trainer story briefly

tiana- Jesse Lopez can you tell us yours briefly cooper - Mike tell us about your injury how did it happen, how did you evaluate, who called for help- he didn't sit down in the golf cart, he lost his balance and his right foot fell in the concrete and it Pop. They called 911 and had surgery the next day.

tiana - Jesse please tell us your injury story- He started running to the field to check the girl and he lunge to the ground and he felt like a pop. He felt that it was tight and after he went to check with doctor.He torn his ACL. He had surgery after 2 months.

Jackson's Story depending on time

Let's talk about the rehab process

Mike:First week it was a terrible pain and going to the physical therapy clinic.

Jesse:He was getting excited to start and getting his quads pumps and other exercises.

Jackson:

tiana-What are some things you have learned from the whole experiences?

nick-have you made any changes to your emergency action plan because of this?

chrissy cope - trucked during pregame wasn't watching the field

McFarlin - checking a kid for concussion and gets hit in head with a punt causing a concussion

Episode #200 - plans are to have a 4 hour BLAB featuring about 8 - 30 minute segments featuring various ATs. March 2nd 9 - 1 CST
