Information Collection and Use

Habit Tracker is designed to assist you in tracking and developing your daily habits without the need for user registration. We prioritize your privacy and have structured our application to ensure that personal data is not required, collected, stored, or processed.

Analytics

We use Firebase Analytics, a service provided by Google, to collect anonymous and aggregated information about how users interact with the application. This data helps us to improve the functionality and user experience of Habit Tracker.

The types of information collected through Firebase Analytics may include:

- application usage statistics (such as screen views, session duration, feature usage)
- device information (such as device type, operating system version)

This data is not linked to any personal information and is collected in an aggregated and anonymized form. Firebase Analytics does not collect information that would directly identify you.

You can learn more about Firebase's data privacy practices here:

https://firebase.google.com/support/privacy

No Personal Data Collection

Our application does not require or store any personal information, such as names, email addresses, or other contact details. Users can utilize Habit Tracker without the concern of personal data collection.

Non-Personal Data

In addition to analytics data, we may collect other non-personal information about the usage of our application, such as the number of users and engagement metrics. This information is used purely for improving the application and its features and is not linked to any personal data.

Data Security

Although we do not collect personal data, we are committed to ensuring the security of our application. We implement appropriate security measures to protect against unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction of any non-personal data we may collect.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

Habit Tracker reserves the right to update or change our Privacy Policy at any time. We will post any Privacy Policy changes on this page and encourage you to review our policy periodically. Your continued use of the service after any modifications to the Privacy Policy will constitute your acknowledgment of the modifications and your consent to abide and be bound by the modified Privacy Policy.

Acceptance of These Terms

By using Habit Tracker, you signify your acceptance of this policy. If you do not agree to this policy, please do not use our application. Your continued use of the application following the posting of changes to this policy will be deemed your acceptance of those changes.
