

Confidentiality Statement for Trustee and Committee Members

It is the policy of Mountain Movers that Trustee and Committee members of Mountain Movers will not disclose confidential information belonging to, or obtained through their affiliation with, Mountain Movers to any person, including their relatives, friends, and business and professional associates, unless Mountain Movers has authorised disclosure. This policy is not intended to prevent disclosure where disclosure is required by law.

Confidentiality is the preservation of privileged information. Board members (Trustees) and other volunteers are cautioned to demonstrate professionalism, good judgment, and care at all times in handling any information related to Mountain Movers to avoid unauthorized or improper disclosures of confidential information.

While board and committee members (trustees and committee members) are expected and encouraged to discuss the organisation with one another and targeted publics, they shall not report opinions expressed in meetings, nor shall they report independently on committee action, or engage in any communication that has not been approved by the Chair or that would not be supported by board policy, procedures, or decisions.

At the end of the board or committee member's (trustee or committee member's) term or upon his/her retirement, resignation or removal from the Board of Directors (Board of Trustees) or committee, he/she shall return, at Mountain Movers request, all documents, papers, and other materials, regardless of medium, which may contain or be derived from confidential information, in his/her possession.

It is expected that board and committee members (trustees and committee members), will not use trade secrets, client lists, or other confidential information acquired by virtue of being on the board or committee, even after they complete their service with Mountain Movers.
