

Potential New Member (PNM) Code of Ethics, Agreement of Mutual Respect, and PNM Bill of Rights at University of North Florida College Panhellenic

PNM Bill of Rights: Sorority is a social experience based on the fundamental right of a free people to form voluntary associations, and sorority membership is a social experience arrived at by mutual choice and selection. The mutual selection choice is only as effective as is factual information available; therefore, the University of North Florida College Panhellenic has adopted the following Potential New Member's Bill of Rights. All PNMs have:

- The right to be treated as an individual
- The right to be fully informed about the recruitment process
- The right to ask questions and receive true and objective answers from recruitment counselors and members
- The right to be treated with respect
- The right to be treated as a capable and mature person without being patronized
- The right to ask how and why and receive straight answers
- The right to have and express opinions to recruitment counselors
- The right to have inviolable confidentiality when sharing information with recruitment counselors
- The right to make informed choices without undue pressure from others
- The right to be fully informed about the NPC Unanimous Agreements implicit in the membership recruitment acceptance binding agreement (MRABA) signing process
- The right to make one's own choice and decision and accept full responsibility for the results of that decision
- The right to have a positive, safe and enriching recruitment and new member experience

"We, as Undergraduate Members of women's fraternities, stand ... for maintenance of fine standards...for service through the development of character inspired by the close contact and deep friendship of individual fraternity and Panhellenic life. The opportunity for wide and wise human service, through mutual respect and helpfulness, is the tenet by which we strive to live."

This is accomplished by abiding by the following agreements:

- A PNM shall attend recruitment orientation and all membership recruitment events for which she receives invitations.
- Respect for the membership recruitment process is expected at all times. This includes respect toward chapter members, recruitment counselors, Panhellenic officers, faculty, staff and other PNMs. PNMs should refrain from sexist, homophobic, racist or otherwise abhorrent conversations.
- I understand my rights under the PNM Bill of Rights, and if I experience discrimination, I know how to report it to the College Panhellenic.
- I understand participating in recruitment requires a non-refundable registration fee, payable to the University of North Florida Council Panhellenic via credit card or debit card.
- Membership recruitment is a substance-free process. Women may not use or be in the presence of drugs and alcohol during the membership recruitment period. Violating this rule will result in immediate removal from the membership recruitment process.
- PNMs should be fully aware of the financial obligations of membership before accepting a bid. It is to the PNM's advantage to ask questions during recruitment events if there are questions about finances.

- PNMs agree to treat the chapter recruitment parties as confidential. PNMs will not record or share any content from recruitment events, whether in person or virtual. A breach of this agreement could result in disciplinary action.
- PNMs understand that if they sign a Membership Recruitment Acceptance Binding Agreement (MRABA) after the preference round, they are bound to that document and the chapter that extends them a bid. This means the PNM is ineligible for an invitation to membership from another NPC organization until the next primary recruitment on that campus.

Failure to abide by the abovementioned expectations will result in reviewing your status as a PNM. The first offense will result in a warning from Panhellenic recruitment staff. The second offense will result in being released from the Panhellenic recruitment process. If the Panhellenic recruitment staff determines the first offense to be severe enough, a PNM could be subject to an immediate release from the Panhellenic recruitment process.
