This is the Miradi Share report document starter template for Word

You must use this starter template to create report document templates. A blank document created directly from Word will not work. It will not include the formatting needed for report document templates used in Miradi Share.

To use this starter template: Download this Word document, save it to your hard drive, and use it to create any new report document templates.