

PART I: Read the selected portions of the The Prince by Niccolo Machiavelli

Chapters to read: Dedication, 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 10, 12 [1st paragraph only], 14-19 [in 19 only up to "instances"/examples], 21, 23, 25, 26

(Link to e-book: http://www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/1232?msg=welcome_stranger#link2H_4_0006)

*Upon completion of reading this book, complete the corresponding worksheet (see below).

Machiavelli in the 20th Century

Name _____

After reading the Prince, you will be creating your own rubric with which you will judge a modern world leader of your own choosing. Fill in (type or neatly print) the "ideal" characteristics below, then score your leader on the back. Make sure to use evidence from the Prince and at least 2 credible sources for your chosen leader. Please attach an MLA source list to this document.

Category	According to Machiavelli, in order to be an ideal Prince what characteristics define this category?
Methods of Rising to Power
Attitude Towards Religion
Personality Characteristics
Treatment of the Enemy
Conquering of Other Lands
Treatment of Their Subjects
Use of the Military
Keeping Power

--	--

Is it good or bad to have the ideal qualities of a Prince? Explain!

World Leader from 1914 –

Present _____

Category	Score out of 10	Explanation for Score based on Criteria
Methods of Rising to Power
Attitude Towards Religion
Personality Characteristics
Treatment of the Enemy
Conquering of Other Lands
Treatment of Their Subjects
Use of the Military
Keeping Power

Would Machiavelli consider this leader an ideal Prince? Why or why not? Explain!

