

Rough Packing List for Summer Lab Residents

- Journal(s)
- Pens
- Everyday clothes
- Clothes you can get dirty
- Rain gear / umbrella
- Slippers (there is a lot carpet and the basement is unfinished)
- Extra masks if you have them
- Extra COVID Tests if you have them
- Walking shoes/sandals and work shoes
- Reusable Water bottle
- Reusable Coffee Mug
- Ear plugs / eye mask if needed
- Headphones
- Bathing suit, sunglasses, sun hat
- Books you love! (We have a few full bookshelves)
- Decorations that will make your room/house feel like home (art, string lights, pictures etc.)
- Personal items (toiletries, medication, etc.) (also, if you have any hard-to-get prescriptions, you might want to inquire about getting 2 months worth of refills if possible)
- Laptop and charger (if you have one)
- Alarm clock (if you don't want to use your cell phone for this)
- Backpack / messenger bag, fanny pack
- Student ID, Regular ID, SS Card, Passport copies of all of those too
- Health insurance ID cards and copies if staying on your own or parents' insurance

Optional things you may want if you have room:

- Small sewing kit
- Board games, instruments, whatever is your thing to share with group
- headlamp, sleeping bag / camping stuff
- Other bedding (bedding is provided but if you have special blankets, pillows, sheets etc. for twin size beds/full bed)
- bicycle, good lock, and helmet (there might be bikes at the house up for grabs, we don't have locks/helmets for all, and they might need a bit of tuning up!) If you have biking gear (lights, helmet) and you think you'll want them, bring those along. Reflective clothing is super helpful too!
- Personal item that speaks to who you are and what people have supported you
- Other alter items

Things the house will have for you:

- Kitchen with all the regular cooking utensils, pots & pans (lots of things for large groups)
- Towels and bedding (although, again, you can bring your own if you have stuff you love)
- Lamps and small lights in room
- Desks (in some rooms, not all, also in common spaces)
- Trash cans /Recycle Bins
- Clothing storage and Hangers
- Air Conditioners/Heaters
- Regular restock items (detergents, toilet paper, paper towels etc)
