

The Power of the Image, Spoken Word & Storytelling for Sustainable Communities

Activities Week 8
01.05 - 7.05

Name of the activity: Assessment.

Modality: Asynchronous.

Objectives:

- To evaluate the development of intercultural and communicative competences during the course.
- To collect student feedback on the COIL experience and its application to their field of study for future course improvements.

Instructions:

1. Reflect on the rewards of what you have learned during the project. Some positive things could be: meeting students of other regions and other degrees, learning about different cultures, developing your creativity in writing or speaking, applying strategies to raise community awareness, sharing experiences with your peers.
2. Reflect on the challenges you experienced during the project. Some negative things could be: difficulty working in teams, time management, lack of participation of some team members, etc.
3. Answer the post-intercultural assessment in Google form.
4. Share your reflections in a creative way through a post in the channel #week 8 in Slack. Select one of the following formats: (a) Create an acronym and make a song about it; (b) Create a lottery card with pictures; (c) Make a drawing or a digital image in the fashion of a cadavre exquis; (d) Design a poster; (e) Write a poem; (f) Create a word image or puzzle. The pictures, words or any resources should represent your feelings and your evaluation of the project.
