

“Dammit fox kicking me outta the house. What do think will happen when Symbol comes over with Erotica? Did he expect us to sit down and have tea?” he chuckled at the thought thinking back to when they got caught in an awkward position with Firestorm having already mounted the fully bent white mare, with his pride shamelessly showing. “No fucking when guests are around, he says. Such a killjoy virgin!”

He trudged on and wandered into the everfree forest without much of a care, Erotica had been grounded by Symbol so that was a no-no for the outdoors. Having yet again been denied of his desires he decided to walk things off.

He hadn't gotten far when he heard noises which attracted him towards a deeper part of the forest. After touching down from flying there he noticed a spot of bother occurring.

“What's all this? Another mare in distress?” he said sounding serious. “Everypony may think I don't treat them with respect, but nothing pisses me off more than seeing somepony getting hurt!” he trotted ahead noticing a mean looking black stallion who seemed to be harassing the scared, fearful blue mare.

“Oi!” Firestorm barked before charging at him, and delivering a painful buck to his jaw with his hind hooves. “What sort of weakling are you? Picking on the defenceless?” The stallion staggered backwards and growled at him. “Huh you want some? Bring it on!” Firestorm said standing on his hind legs punching a few blows with his hooves. The stallion continued to stare, but then his facial expression changed and he decided to leave.

“The fuck is he going?” Firestorm questioned, but already the stallion was long gone. “Bitch.” said Firestorm who calmed down and turned to check if the mare was okay.

“He didn't hurt you right?” he asked, but then she smiled a warm smile at him.

“No, but that was brave of you.” she said in a slender tone as she slowly advanced to him.

“Hehe just erm doing my job, keeping my special talent up to scratch and all, gotta live up to the cutie mark!” he said nervously as she came closer.

“Well what else do you live up to?” she asked stroking his chest with a hoof, he blushed and grinned back as she gently pushed him to the floor. “I like it when guys are modest.” she giggled climbing ontop of him and looking down into his eyes. She smiled again and Firestorm thought it was imagination at first, but he swore he could have seen something glint in her eyes.

“Well how about I show you my gratitude?” she asked leaning closer, that's when Firestorm heard a magical sound and suddenly her body started glowing.

“Huh?” he said as the green light shimmered brighter. Suddenly her skin seemed to go darker in colour, a horn was now protruding from her head, but it looked crooked and full of holes. Her hooves followed a similar fashion with holes forming in them as she laughed a distinct evil laugh. Firestorm felt himself being pinned to the ground, and now he was panicking wondering what on earth was going on.

“You fool!” she spoke looking down at him. “You are all so easy to catch, what silly stallions you are, all the same!”

“Who are you?” Firestorm snapped trying to move himself.

“Silence slave you are here for a reason.” she spoke. “You shall obey and serve your Queen!”

“Queen? Pfft I don’t follow anyone I make my own rules!” he barked.

“You’ll do as I say!” she said making her horn glow green, Firestorm felt pain in his head as her spell harmed him mentally.

“Argh okay okay I’ll listen!” he whined making her stop.

“Good then I shall begin my feed!” she chuckled.

“WHAT?” he gasped. “Hey don’t eat me, I don’t taste good. Besides aren’t we herbivores?” she looked at him again and giggled.

“Silly pony, it is not meat I require, it is your seed!” she said making him gulp. “In order to feed my minions, I must harvest only the finest from stallions like you!”

“No way, this junk is for Erotica at least she puts it to good use!” he replied.

“Well you’ll be serving me now wherever you like it or not!” she giggled as her horn glowed again and she cast a spell making his groin feel funny.

“Wait!” Firestorm gasped. “I heard Symbol mention these before, she’s a succubus! HELL NO I DON’T WANT TO DIE!” he yelled but he felt himself getting hard as she strengthened the spell on him. She watched with a drooling mouth as he grew inch by inch until she had him fully erect.

“Such a generous size for your queen!” she spoke moving her head between his legs.

“Fuck no I’m not dying not yet!” he gasped, but she laughed at him as her forked tongue snaked around the base of his member. He watched in shock as it continued to coil around it coating it in saliva which left a tingling sensation. The tip of her tongue snaked around his tip, and she gently licked it giving him a light sensation as her mouth moved closer.

“Fuck!” Firestorm gasped as she gratefully took it all in her mouth. She looked into his eyes with her own paralysing him as her mouth began to move up and down his shaft. He could feel her tongue rubbing and squeezing around it as she sucked up and down beginning the extraction process as she liked to call it. Already he could feel it pulsing and throbbing as the slimy tingly sensation spread through his lower body. He began breathing sharply trying not to moan as the pleasure got to him.

He tried to move but her gaze remained fixed on him, and he flinched as her tongue licked around his sensitive area. She continued to suckle on him feeling it throb more and more as she further enticed his orgasm whilst at the same time pushing his limits. He tried to distract himself, but the sensation was overpowering, and her stare continued to hold him there as if he'd turned into stone.

She opened her mouth and her tongue contracted and licked around his wet member, the tingling sensation from her saliva increased as she soaked it in the slimy substance and rubbed it around with her tongue. She began stroking it in her coils and squeezing hard making him groan uncontrollably.

She began to get impatient and cast another spell on it to speed up the process. Now he could feel it throbbing intensely, and he felt an incredible sensation in his groin as she forced him to orgasm.

“I queen Chrysalis shall have her feed!” she spoke intensifying the spell. Her tongue wrapped him again as she resumed sucking on him even quicker.

“It’s no use!” he gasped unable to hold back. “I’m sorry Erotica.” he moaned as the throbbing became faster and she gave it a hard squeeze as she sucked on it faster until he came.

He groaned loudly as he blew his load inside her mouth coating her cheeks in it as she milked him with her tongue. Her eyes lit up as she tasted his thick goeey substance in her mouth. She swallowed all of it and he noticed her midsection starting to glow and emit a pulsing sound.

“Mmm such a tasty meal, I want more!” she demanded licking her lips.

“Wha?” Firestorm panicked as she fixed her eyes on him.

“You shall satisfy me until I have all of it!” she said with an evil smile.

“No way! Let me go!” he whined trying to get up, but she wouldn’t let him budge.

“Perhaps this is more to your liking.” she said starting to glow bright green again, so bright that Firestorm shielded his eyes.

When he opened them again Chrysalis was nowhere to be seen, he got up slowly and rubbed his eyes clear as he looked around, but then he spotted a familiar face.

"Ero it's you!" he said with a smile. "Boy are you a sight for sore eyes!" he said as she smiled at him.

"What are you doing here Storm?" she chuckled.

"More like what are you doing out here? Aren't you grounded?" he asked.

"Um I err sneaked past." she said nervously.

"Couldn't stay away from me huh?" he said coming closer.

"You know it Firestorm. Now where were we?" she asked seductively stroking his chin with her tail. "Oh I remember, you were about to give me good pounding hmm?"

"Damn straight!" he said having already forgotten about Chrysalis.

"Hold it fire guy, surely walking here has made you tired, how about me on top huh?" she asked having already shoved him to the ground. She climbed atop and kissed his mouth, rubbing her tongue around his as she felt his length growing between her hind legs.

"I thought I was a bad kisser?" Firestorm asked as she pulled away making her giggle. Her wet petals stroked across his throbbing hardness as it became erect poking between her folds.

"Let me take care of you." she said rising up and slowly penetrating herself on the tip of his cock. She hummed with delight as she felt his thickness sliding deeper inside her, and Firestorm felt that familiar incredible pleasure from her as she went down on him.

"Aahhh, so big!" she gasped having mentioned it many times. Her beautiful face showed arousal as she slowly began riding him, picking up speed by the second. "So thick and hot!" she moaned as her juices squirted all over his shaft lubricating him. Firestorm grabbed onto her thighs as she pumped his length in and out of her loving femness.

She moaned loudly as she received his love whilst looking down at him. Firestorm began to feel relaxed and pleased as they resumed their interrupted session. Erotica blushed bright red resting her hooves on his chest as she rode up and down his pole.

"Ah! ahhh! aaaaah!" she gasped as her moans increased, she opened her eyes staring into his then licked her lips and smiled. He gazed back at her, but then her eyes glowed green all of a sudden.

“Ero?” Firestorm questioned, but then came a familiar laugh as Erotica underwent a transformation revealing herself as none other than Queen Chrysalis again.

“FUCK!” Firestorm yelled in shock as she continued to laugh at him whilst sliding her femness up and down his thick shaft.

“You fool how stupid can you be?” Chrysalis giggled as she thrust his member inside of her. Firestorm felt a completely new sensation as it slid into her tight passage, her flesh rubbed and massaged his maleness as she oozed a slimy, green, transparent slime all over his cock causing it to tingle intensely making loud squelching sounds.

The sensations stimulated his nerves vigorously as her wet marehood continued to suck his phallus harder inside her drawing pleasure out of it. He began to panic and sweat as she fucked him hard pleasing him with her body. She began to pant as she felt him throbbing inside her again desperate for his cum to come spurting out and storing it inside her midsection which seemed to be a glowing sack.

“Feed your Queen!” she bellowed as she rode him faster and faster. “Mmm yes satisfy me more with your tangy sweet seed!” He began to feel weaker as the muscles in his body started to give, the only response he could feel was the wetness between his legs as she continued to suck hard on his cock with her tight, warm, wet marehood. The oozing slime continued to make it tingle as she forced him to enjoy it while it lasted. She stared into his eyes as her tongue hung from her mouth as she pressed down on his chest with her hooves.

She felt him throbbing harder getting ready as she prepared him for orgasm again. The slime stimulated him harder as she continued to drench his member in it. Chrysalis moaned louder and she felt her insides constrict his member within her as she rode him faster and faster.

“Give me your seed.” she said in her lustrous voice as he moaned loudly.

“Fucking hell!” he gasped as once again he came inside her. He felt the powerful pulsations and tingling as he unloaded inside her. The rewarding sensations continued as she received his load milking as much as she could before stopping. The feeling of his hot cum flowing inside her caused her to orgasm somehow. She felt the vigorous sensations pulsing through her body as her sack glowed bright green.

“Yes, yes, feed me!” she moaned as he came a little more before stopping. “More I want more of your seed inside me. Give your Queen your love!” she slid off him feeling excited now as he remained hard with the slime keeping it solid. She rubbed her hoof on his tip and smiled as it slipped into one of her holes. She squeezed his erection inside it and to Firestorm it felt weird but new to him.

Chrysalis slid her hoof up and down his member and he groaned as he felt the new pleasure flowing through him. The insides of her hoof hole felt soft and warm, they rubbed hard around his shaft as she massaged her slime into his throbbing stallionhood. Her hoof rubbed up and down faster pleasing him more as it slid up and down his thick pole. She laughed some more watching him struggle as he began to enjoy the repetitive pleasure.

“Your eyes tell me of all the ponies you’ve seen and know.” she said. “And I can be...

Any pony - she said changing her face to nightmare moon-

you want Trixie to be - she said changing to the blue magical mare-and anypony you desire!” she said changing her face to Sapphire’s.

“Sis what the fuck!?” he gasped as she sucked hard on his shaft, licking it with her tongue.

“What’s wrong big brother? Am I making you cum?” she giggled. “You don’t have to hide your feelings from me.” she said in a sexy voice. “Or maybe...”

“You’d prefer your best friend!” Presto chirped sliding his tongue up his shaft.

“WHAT THE FUCK!?” Firestorm growled as Presto smiled at him.

“Take a good look at yourself Firestorm!” he said before changing again, and now Firestorm was indeed looking at himself, he grinned at him making the real Firestorm feel freaked out. Chrysalis looked down and realised he’d lost his hardness. He changed back into Erotica who gave him a warm smile.

“Still got any left big boy?” she asked licking his limp shaft making him go erect again. “Thanks you silly stallion!” she said before changing back to Chrysalis who giggled at him.

“Nothing like dinner and a show.” she said as her hoof rubbed up his shaft before it slipped out of her hole. “I want you to feed me some more!” she said getting on her back. “Give me your love!” she ordered.

“No way!” Firestorm replied making her roll her eyes. She stared straight at him making them glow, and soon enough his body began to move against his will.

“You’re under my control now!” she said bringing him on top of her. She parted her hind legs allowing his midsection to slid between her. She held onto him and used her magic to guide his thick shaft and slotted it inside her. “Love your Queen!” she said making him thrust her slowly at first. She gasped with pleasure feeling his hot member sliding in and out of her oozing femness. She made him hug her tight as their bodies touched and they began grinding against each other.

Firestorm panicked as he felt his body doing these things he didn't want to, but it felt so good feeling his maleness being pleased by her tight hole, it continued to suck hard on it as he penetrated her harder stirring her oozing slime inside her crevice. She began to pant and stroked his back as she made him do all the work. He continued to thrust on her demand feeling his warmth ramming her hard.

Chrysalis moaned as she felt his love penetrating her constantly, she stroked his face and continued to stare lovingly into his eyes as she forced him to make love to her. She continued to reward his obedience as she became more excited continuing to extract him. She leaned forward to kiss him and her tongue wrapped around his, sliding and rubbing around it making him feel good. His tongue moved on its own responding to hers as their lips rubbed against each others.

She held him closer feeling his body heat mixing with hers as they became sweatier. He closed his eyes as he kissed her, and that's when she lost control of him, however he was still thrusting which surprised her. She felt him pick up the pace as he drove his throbbing hardness in and out between her slimy wet walls.

Chrysalis let out another moan as she received him faster and faster. Firestorm didn't say a word, he just continued to grunt and pant as he bucked back and forth. Chrysalis felt a stimulating sensation around her clit as his thick rod pumped in and out faster squeezing between her tight petals, she panted loudly and looked up at him as he continued to give her his love without the need for controlling him.

"My little subject." she said stroking him with her hoof becoming excited as he got ready to cum again. Firestorm was blown over by the powerful sensations in his body, he absolutely loved it and wanted to cum again, to feel that tantalizing pulsing sensation as the contractions pleased him. The more he looked at her the more smitten he became. She snuggled with him taking more of his love as the heat between them increased. She felt him throbbing intensely as he groaned loudly clenching his teeth.

"Yes give me more, give me your juicy love!" she gasped encouraging him as he thrustled like crazy becoming addicted to her. "Squirt your juicy love inside me!" she ordered as her femness tightened around him again holding it inside.

Firestorm moaned loudly as he experienced another orgasm, the mind blowing sensation spread through his muscles as his crotch contracted countless times shooting more sticky warm cum inside her passage. Her entire marehood tingled all over reacting to the sensation of his cum flowing inside. He squirted more before gasping and collapsing on her chest. She breathed hard as the pleasing feeling of his seed flowing to her sack enticed her more.

"Again!" she demanded getting up. Firestorm watched as she presented her full wide backside to him, he continued to stare at her thick plump flanks, and her slit just about visible between her curves.

“Is this not what stallions enjoy?” She asked bending slightly for him, now she was hot and flustered. Before she had only been sucking the cum out of him, but now she seemed to be enjoying sex with him and wanted to enjoy it more with him in control. “Hurry and give me your love!” she demanded as Firestorm came closer without a word.

He mounted her round rump feeling himself go erect as it wedged between her butt, he squeezed it in and felt the tip pushing against her wet slit. He penetrated her gasping for air as she engulfed it whole. It slid in easily up to his sack, and he felt her soft posterior squashing against his body. Soon enough he was making love to her holding on for dear life as he pounded her wide backside.

“Mmmm.” Chrysalis moaned feeling the thickness sliding in and out rubbing around her clit. Firestorm was already panting but strangely began to feel a little weak as he thrust her from behind. He parted his hind legs and pumped his hips faster groaning loudly as the pleasing, stimulating sensations spread through him. She leaked her oozing slime all over his cock making the tingly feeling return to him.

Chrysalis moaned more falling in love with his cock, she had collected so much from him, but still lusted for more, plus she enjoyed feeling him make love to her from behind. She began to get sweaty again as her body became hotter. Firestorm continued to enjoy her soft backside as his stallionhood plunged in and out of her soaked crevice pulsing with slime, and dripping all over her legs. Every time he felt it sink into her, the warm wetness stimulated the nerves in his shaft. It slipped out drenched in slime, and he rubbed it around her tight petals before penetrating her again loving the feeling of diving into her wet warm flesh as it rubbed and caressed all around his maleness.

He continued to pound away feeling his orgasm coming again, by now Chrysalis would have assumed direct control over her subject whilst riding on top of him until he came relentlessly inside her, and then passing away without a trace. But she decided that she liked this subject and wanted to keep him. His hips bucked and smacked against her ass as she moaned desperately for him to expel his seed inside her. She felt her sac tingle ready to receive more as it glowed and throbbed. Her wings flickered a little out of excitement as she too felt an orgasm coming.

“Feed me your love, give it all to me!” she said as he went faster feeling her femness squeezing it out of him, it went tight and sucked his shaft in deeper making his sensitive areas go haywire with pulsing sensations. Her horn glowed, and as a reward she stimulated his groin with the most pleasing experience he’d ever felt. He moaned loudly as the concentrated pleasure drove him to orgasm.

“Damn this is so much better than Trixie!” he gasped feeling it throb and convulse harder. He continued penetrating between her wet warm pussy lips feeling them rub along his shaft as his orgasm edged closer and closer. Chrysalis felt the same around her clit area as she began to moan also losing herself in this heated sex fest.

“Yes! Feed me, feed me!” she moaned as she gasped loudly. Firestorm felt like exploding as he buried it deeper and deeper. Her flesh continued to squeeze his tip rubbing and massaging him until he could hold it no longer.

The heavenly sensation washed over him as once again he came deep inside her. He groaned loudly with each thrust filling her with cum as she squealed with delight from her orgasm. Her insides choked his phallus inside her milking him harder than he had ever been milked before as more and more cum pumped out of him in floods. He felt her contractions around his pulsating shaft as their orgasms continued on.

Eventually Firestorm went limp and after she had sucked the remaining cum out of him, she let it slip free out of her filled crevice before he collapsed. Chrysalis absorbed it all and now with a full stomach she turned to lay with him.

“Good subject.” she said stroking him as he caught his breath back. He could still feel the tingle from her slime which remained on his receding member. Her glowing sac hummed as an indication that it was full. She stayed next to him and looked into his eyes as he opened his.

“This shall be enough for my minions, but it won’t be long before I require more!” she said looking at him.

“Wait what?!” Firestorm gasped as she laughed at him.

“If you do not wish to die, then serve me!” she bellowed.

“Oh lord, somepony help me.” he whimpered as she laughed at him, he dared not to move as she fixated her greedy gaze on his crotch, just waiting before she’d need more of his seed again.

“My minion done well bringing you to me!” she said licking her lips.

“So that’s why that black pony just walked off, he was working for her!” Firestorm thought, but then he was put off as Chrysalis glared at him, waiting for her next generous feed.
