

Fibonacci Poem for the Great God Pan
By Dudley Stone

Pan
can keep his goat-boy self to hisself. Boy tries to pipe up my skirt 'n charm down my honey bucket, suspectin' he might could fill it, I'll knock his goat-boy behind out de door 'n into next week 'n say: "Pan, meet Skillet!"