Child Development Department — Requirements for Certificates and Degrees

CHILD DEVELOPMENT MASTER TEACHER: EARLY INCLUSION

Certificate of Achievement or A.S. Degree

This program includes a selection of courses that provide academic preparation for a teaching career working with typically developing children and children with disabilities (birth to 5 years) in inclusive settings. This program will give students general knowledge and skills in theory, principles, and techniques for work in inclusive settings. The 39 units listed in this section enable students to complete an Early Inclusion Master Teacher Certificate of Achievement.

Students also have the option to earn an Associate in Science Degree in Child Development by completing the 39 units for this Certificate and the General Education courses required by the college.
