

Job brief

We are in search of a Chief Technology Officer to build strategies that support the company's long-term goals. The role includes developing the company's technological resources, ensuring they are used profitably and efficiently, and implementing new systems and infrastructure.

Responsibilities

- Grow the company's technological capabilities to ensure they meet the company's company's goals.
- Identify and implement technologies that give an edge to the company.
- Collaborates with other departments to streamline company policies and rules by implementing new technologies.
- Support all business units by making sure technology is used profitably.
- Ensure the efficiency and functionality of all systems and infrastructure.
- Design and implement QA and data security processes.
- Assess performance by monitoring budgets and KPIs.
- Create feedback loops from stakeholders to define improvements and adjustments.
- Establishes and enforces appropriate Internet usage policies for employees.
- Assesses new technology and gives technological solutions recommendations.

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Information Technology, Computer Science or related
- Past experience in a similar role
- Knowledge of budgeting and resource allocation
- Experience in conducting technological research and analyses

- Great leadership and communication skills
- Strategic thinker with a problem-solving attitude

<https://www.manatal.com/job-description/chief-technology-officer-cto-job-description>