

It is time to renew your membership for 2021-2022, or Sign on as a new member! Please note that our membership cycle runs from July 1st to June 30th. CASE is a membership funded organization and relies on membership dues to cover costs of planning, operations, organizing, and administration. We ask that all membership dues be paid by September 30th at the latest. (Membership form attached with this email)

As a CASE member, you will benefit in the following areas:

- Advocacy: Gain a strong voice in advocacy to the Department of Disability and Aging Services (DAS) & other City departments for programs & services for seniors and people with disabilities living in San Francisco. Be part of creating CASE's annual Budget Ask.
- Education & Awareness: Expert presentations, panels & trainings from leaders in aging and disability on new, innovative, inspiring, and most relevant/upcoming senior-related issues (Click here for a list of all our presenters/panelists/trainers - Click here to view our programs from last year)
- Outreach: Secure outreach opportunities to senior services providers/agencies throughout San Francisco. Direct access provided through our calendar on our newly designed website case-sf.org
- Access: Gain access to DAS officials as they join our meetings to discuss, answer questions, and brainstorm solutions to issues our members experience as service providers as well as community leaders
- Publicity: Obtain access to CASE membership to publicize your agency's events, job announcements, relevant updates
- Updates: Receive news, events and government updates relevant to seniors and people with disabilities
- Discounts: Be eligible for discounted rates for participation in CASE's annual Getting There Together signature event upon its resumption
- The Legacy: Become part of the legacy of CASE with its 30+ years of service to seniors and people with disabilities and making San Francisco an aging and disability friendly city!

We often provide CEUs for attending training sessions. The announcement for such events will indicate it and provide further details.*
