

#1 Basic patterns of adjective clauses.

In the spaces, write all the pronouns possible to complete each sentence.

Whom - formal / old-fashioned

To whom it may concern

Books

Whom - refers to the object

1. Mr. Green is the man who(m) / that I was talking about obj
2. She is the woman who/that sits next to me in class.
sub
3. The hat that/which Tom is wearing is unusual.
4. Hunger and poverty are worldwide problems that/which people need to find solutions to.
5. I Enjoyed talking with the man who / that I sat next to on the plane.
6. People who/that have a fear of flying, avoid travelling by plane.
7. That is the man whose daughter won the spelling bee.
8. The people who the novelist wrote about were factory workers and their families.
The friends who I met up with were from Mexico.
Some of the victims of the hurricane who I found in a shelter were traumatized.
The people about whom
9. A barrel is a large container which/that is made of wood or metal.
10. The bat is the only mammal that/which can fly.
11. People who/that don't get enough sleep become short-tempered and irritable.
12. The cold weather which/that swept in from the north damaged the fruit crop.
13. Alex bought a bicycle that/which is specially designed for long-distance racing.
14. I read about a woman who/that makes old -fashioned clocks for a living.

Which / wish

Which

Witch

#2 - Error Correction

[illegible]