Independent Study Graduation FAQ

When and where is Graduation?

Graduation will be on Tuesday, June 2, 2026, at 6:00 PM at Montgomery High School Gymnasium (3250 Palm Ave. San Diego, 92154).

What time do the graduates need to arrive?

Report to the location no later than 5:00 PM with Cap & Gown in hand. Dressy attire and dress shoes. Do not carry anything with you: no balloons, yearbooks, cameras, purses, etc. Leave these with your parents or you will be sent to your car to drop them off. All seniors will be checked for these items and any other items that might be disruptive.

Is there a limit on how many guests each graduate can bring?

Yes, there is a limit of 6 guests per graduate.

When is Graduation Rehearsal?

The graduation rehearsal is on Wednesday, May 27, 2026, at 4:30 PM. Attendance is Mandatory.

How do graduates get their Cap and Gown?

Graduates will borrow their cap, gown, and tassel right after rehearsal on Wednesday, May 27th. They must return their cap, gown, and tassel in order to receive their diploma.

When can graduates receive their diploma?

Graduates can receive their diploma from the Independent Study Office on June 5th 9:00AM-12:00PM, when they turn in their cap, gown, and tassel. (467 Moss St. Chula Vista, 91911).

Are there restrictions on what guests may bring to graduation?

Please do not bring anything loud or distracting. This includes, but not limited to balloons, air horns, confetti, etc. We kindly ask all guests to leave these items in their vehicles.

Is there reserve seating?

Seating is: "first come, first serve." However, the first two rows of seats will be reserved for school and district staff.

Are there special accommodations for guests with limited mobility?

A ramp is available for parents/students that need access to the gymnasium. There will be an elevator for students that need access to the ceremony.
