

KnockedOutDragon's Terms of Service

Updated as of 1/22/2025

By commissioning me or taking part of any of my services you hereby agree to my terms of service

I reserve the right to deny or cancel a commission/request at any time if I so choose for any reason

I will not accept a commission from any individual under the age of 18, let alone have a minor interact with me on my 18+ only accounts. If you are under 18 years of age and you lie about your age to do business with me, I will block you from all of my sites.

I hold zero responsibility for what you decide to do with any of my artwork, that being said DO NOT SHARE MY MATURE CONTENT OUTSIDE 18+ ONLY SPACES! It is against the law to expose minors to adult content such as porn, and I will not associate myself with groomers and pedophiles.

I will NOT be making NFTs and neither do I permit any of my art to be made into an NFT. If you turn any of my artworks into NFTs I will file for a take-down and ban you from all of my galleries.

I also respectfully ask to not use my art for AI Art generation purposes without my expressed written consent. I do not tolerate use of artwork for AI Machine Learning without clear consent from the original artist so please respect that.

As an LGBTQIA+ Ally I won't tolerate any anti-LGBTQIA+ rhetoric and will never draw for anyone who supports hate groups.

If something isn't listed in my do's and don'ts below and you don't know if I'll draw it, then please ask me.

Payment Policy

As of January of 2025 I have removed Stripe as an option for payment and I will only accept payment via invoice on PayPal. But I will always ask for your email upon commission approval, and I will ask for payment upon approval of the sketch.

When paying via PayPal, Please do not add a note to the payment. PayPal can and will suspend accounts if they detect someone is making money from pornographic content via their services (and sometimes they will just suspend an account without warning after someone attaches an innocent note anyway). I understand if you forget not to add a note, but I will refund the payment and request a new payment without a note. Otherwise if you do it on purpose I will ban you from doing business with me for at least 6 months.

Refund Policy

By default I do not offer refunds since I take payment after the sketch phase is complete, and I will not issue a refund after that point. That being said, I can offer refunds on a commission in the event of an emergency if a good reason is stated and as long as I haven't completed your commission. However if I find you disingenuous I will not permit the refund, and additionally in very rare cases I may cancel the commission on the spot without refund.

Policy on underage/childlike characters

I don't draw cub porn, and by extension I refuse to draw any underage characters in any suggestive scenario, even if they are supposedly "Aged Up". I will also never draw childlike characters (lolis) in such scenarios no matter what supposed age they are, and any argument with me on this will result in a ban.

Furthermore I am not likely to accept commissions involving underage or childlike characters even in SFW illustrations because it does not reflect my brand, nor do I have any practice in the subject, so do not be surprised if I turn down such requests.

Policy on Feral and Taur characters

I will make this clear that I am primarily an anthro/humanoid character artist, I have little to no experience drawing quadrupedal figures and have very little interest in them. I may occasionally accept a commission involving ferals and taurs as long as it's kept strictly SFW, but even then I am very unlikely to accept the request because it does not reflect my brand.

Criticism/Feedback

I wholeheartedly encourage your feedback and criticism, but please keep it constructive or at least helpful, (e.g. pointing out mistakes or places I can improve on my work, and not telling me that my art sucks or that I have bad taste in kinks). If you don't have any helpful criticism then please keep it to yourself.

Prices are non-negotiable after the deal is made. Please do not complain about my prices after I have already finished your commission or you will be banned from commissioning me in the future.
