

Quick avatar description: 27-year-old Western guy, Andrew, who wants to move to Dubai. Hasn't yet moved out. Makes some money $10-20k/month from ecom. Sometimes watches Andrew Tate. But is not a super fan of him.

#1 Subject Line: Million Dollar Lesson From Andrew Tate's FUNNIEST Video (Don't Miss This!)

Yesterday I watched a funny yet very TRUE video of Andrew Tate.

But here's the lesson that you must KNOW.

Most guys on Money Twitter are just a bunch of dorks who promise things they haven't achieved yet.

"I will teach you how to make 6-figures!"

LYING!

Most of them haven't made 6-figures yet.

But somehow want you to buy their $9 course and you'll become "financially free".

Listen, I live in Dubai surrounded by millionaires.

And if you want me to tell you the most important lesson I learned from millionaires like Andrew Tate...

Then read this carefully:

No matter what you do in life.

Ecommerce, freelancing, or selling ice creams...

If you don't have the right network...

You'll always fall behind the people who already network with the rich guys.

You may ship orders in 2-4 weeks from Aliexpress...

But someone else will ship the same products in 2-3 days...

This is why people trust their dropshipping sites more and keep buying from them.

You keep running different ads, chose different products, and optimize your Shopify store every week...

But if you don't have a strong network that can push you further...

Then all your efforts fall short eventually.

This is why you MUST broaden your network ...

But the important question is,

Will you take action to get to know wealthy people who can help you?

P.S. If you want to talk with wealthy ecommerce experts, then click here to join our network

#2 Subject Line: ONE way you can surround yourself with HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL people

If you're the guy who sells stuff online,

Then you probably know that most ecom guys are dorks who sit in front of their screens all day hoping to find products no one is selling.

They don't know what it takes to reach the higher levels in this online selling game.

This is why you may hate discord communities full of these people talking about making their first $10K a month...

I hate being around these losers too.

But networking is crucial in our game.

You know it.

And I know it.

Hence why I created an exclusive networking group for people who have ALREADY made 7 figures.

Free of dorks.

You can join now for free here.

We'll come up with an entry price soon.

Is to surround yourself with millionaires.

#4 Subject Line: Why you should NOT get rich?!

What's the downside of becoming ultra-rich?

You won't have any friends and live a lonely life? Your wife only will love you because of your money? You'll have less time to spend with your family?

Maybe that's true.

But isn't it also how brokies live their lives?

At least you'll be lonely with millions of dollars...

Which one do you choose?

Lonely and BROKE,

OR

Lonely and RICH?

The choice is yours.

P.S. 3 days left to join our 7 figure ecom network. (Join only if you've already made $100k at least!)

#5 Subject Line: How to get FOUR WIVES (don't miss out!)

Here's the proven strategy to get 4 wives in one day.

Do it step by step.

1. Delete all dating apps.
2. Head down to a supermarket
3. Go to the cooking supplies section

You won't find goldiggers and hookers looking for cooking supplies.

They are all attached to their Instagram and Tinder.

And if you're a "high-value man", to use red pill terminology, you don't even wish to associate yourself with hookers and goldiggers.

All you need is to know how to talk to the girls you meet in the cooking supplies section.

I'm not a "dating guru". But...

I suggest you join our exclusive networking group to level up your communication skill.
