

If like so many parents you are struggling with the different grammatical terms I have found a fantastic course that you can do that could help you and even better It's completely free! There are lots of dates available but the next date is Monday 30th January 2023 at 19:00 - 19:45 GMT

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/helping-parents-with-home-learning-getting-to-grips-with-grammar-tickets-139952243929>

Multiple Dates

Helping Parents with Home Learning: Getting to Grips with Grammar!

Free

Select a date

This event is designed to help primary school parents with home learning.

The Education Endowment Fund have produced a list of practical strategies to support learning at home. You can access in on the link below.

https://d2tic4wvo1iusb.cloudfront.net/eef-guidance-reports/supporting-parents/EEF\_Parental\_Engagement\_Summary\_of\_recommendations.pdf?v=1667921071

Education Endowment Foundation

WORKING WITH PARENTS TO SUPPORT CHILDREN'S LEARNING
Summary of recommendations

- 1. Establish a positive relationship between parents and the school
  - Focus on building a positive relationship between parents and the school, rather than on specific strategies or interventions.
  - Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school, and to work together to improve the school's performance.
  - Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school, and to work together to improve the school's performance.
- 2. Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school
  - Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school, and to work together to improve the school's performance.
  - Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school, and to work together to improve the school's performance.
  - Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school, and to work together to improve the school's performance.
- 3. Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school
  - Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school, and to work together to improve the school's performance.
  - Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school, and to work together to improve the school's performance.
  - Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school, and to work together to improve the school's performance.
- 4. Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school
  - Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school, and to work together to improve the school's performance.
  - Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school, and to work together to improve the school's performance.
  - Encourage parents to share their views and experiences with the school, and to work together to improve the school's performance.

<https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/>

Oxford Owl have produced a website, aimed at parents to help Support parents and carers with learning at home with reading, writing and maths and the great thing about it is that it is split up into different age groups.

