Title:	Carrington

Writer:	Hannah Malugen

Log Line:	Carrington Adams is meant for success until she meets a boy who makes her think; is success the right path for her to take?

Synopsis:	Carrington Adams is a 16-year-old girl who goes to public school. She is known for being top of her class and always following the rules. One day, she meets Jacks Carter, a 17-year-old boy who just moved from New York City. After approaching her in school, Jacks convinces Carrington to go off on wild adventures like trespassing on school property or breaking into a public pool. Carrington realizes that Jacks has the wrong intentions when she gets into an argument with him about vandalizing one of the walls in the school. She expresses how she thought he wanted to get to know the real her when in fact, he just wanted someone else to blame for his own actions. After storming off, she hears sirens approaching the school and she smiles, knowing that Jacks is going to get what he deserves.
