Subject Line: THE RESEARCH FOR A MIRACLE.

Instead of being happy and taking care of my new baby I was so frustrated. It was the third month since I had my second baby. My friends told me it's because of pregnancy and I will recover soon.

I haven't left my house since I moved to this city. I was visiting only one neighbor who lived alone, she was an old woman. She provided me with many recipes but my skin was so sensitive, the recipes made it worse. LOOKING TO THE MIRROR WAS LIKE A BLACK NIGHTMARE.

Every day the sun was rising, my soul was tending just to sleep more and more. The anniversary of our marriage was coming soon, my husband was watching me and realizing my pain when I looked in the mirror every night with an embarrassed and depressed look, because I didn't have any results. He discovered my fake smiles, he was looking for a miracle that will make me happy.

One night, he gave me a present, and wrote there "Your real smile shines in my heart before the sun shines in the universe". The present was a MIRACLE. It was a package of KATYA LOVE skincare products.

Only one week I was so happy, there were tangible results. After one month, my house door was opened for neighbors, my first child was playing with neighbors children, and my neighbors were asking me "what do you apply for your skin?".

I'm grateful for my husband and KATYA LOVE
