Shoujo Tsubaki Musical Document

(written by the head person of the media search, Sunflower.fields (also known as Madness))

Back in 2023, I had written a Reddit post on r/Musicals titled “Shoujo Tsubaki Musical” where I discussed where I could obtain the soundtrack/s and dvd/s (also digital downloads), it read; “[Don't know where to put this post] Does anyone have the download link for the soundtrack or full video for the Shoujo Tsubaki stage play by KaitenHyakume? I would love to watch the musical version since I am a fan of both musicals and fucked up things. Tried looking for the dvd and soundtrack but they're both sold out everywhere. Does anyone have the link to both soundtrack and video or just the video anywhere?” and, at the time, only one person commented saying that they found the idea of a Shoujo Tsubaki musical insane. Then, in February 2024, I had an idea to post my findings on r/LostMedia. Immediately after posting the post, it was taken down for violating rules 2 and 3 (which it didn’t) and after that post got removed I went to the official Lost Media Wiki to post the same post there which was deleted for unknown reasons (no email, no dm, nothing.) I had then gone onto r/HelpMeFind and that post the mods haven't even approved yet and even if they did it’s an archived post so people can’t comment on it anyway (I’m classing that post as deleted.) I then posted my findings on r/tipofmytongue and only recently (as of writing) I had received a comment which added two new findings to the search. A link to an AppleMusic listing of the 2012 version of the album (which is unavailable) as well as a link to a YouTube video titled “(PARTIALLY FOUND MEDIA) 虚飾集団廻天百眼 - 少女椿 2012 LIVE Album” (Japanese text translates to: Vanity Group Kaiten Hyakugan - Shojo Tsubaki) which is the 2012 full 17 track album. Then, the same user, commented on my r/Musicals post with a link to a SoundCloud link “鋼鉄の見世物小屋 feat.十三月紅夜+金原沙亜弥｜fujimiya.tv” (Japanese Text translates to: Steel Showhouse feat. Jusangatsuki Kouya + Saya Kanehara | fujimiya.tv) which I had found during the early parts of my search as well as the three other tracks on SoundCloud. At the start of the search I had only obtained 11 out of 12 current links. The only link that was recently added to the list was the AmazonJP listing.

UPDATES

UPDATE ONE

Every week I'm finding more and more links to websites where I can purchase the 2012 CD and DVD but still no sign of the 2011 CD and DVD. Out of my research, I have only found ways to obtain the 2012 physical media and not the 2011. The only things I've seen to do with the 2011 production is the Wiki, the CD and DVD listing on their store (which is now a retired link), and a few photos by Yoshifumi Nakaga. Other than that I have no other ways to get their media. I did see an eBay listing for the 2011 poster but that quickly got sold for 50 GBP (roughly 62.95 USD). I can tell we're getting close to seeing the 2012 production footage since most listings for its DVD are still working, we need someone from Japan or someone who is willing to pay for it for anywhere across the world to upload its full contents on a Google Drive link or the Internet Archive. We are getting so close! - Madness

UPDATE TWO

Someone has contacted the search post on Reddit and they have purchased one of the DVDs! We're still missing one soundtrack and one DVD but we are so lucky to be able to view all of the pieces we've collected so far. The Madness Lurks YouTube channel is where we are putting all of our obtained things apart from the proshots. Since we cannot legally put the DVDs on YouTube (we don't want the proshots on YouTube, or any video sharing site like it, out of respect for the creative team behind the stage play), we will have to put them somewhere else that can be found for everyone to view just by a Google search.

UPDATE THREE

The first recording has been found!! Thanks to u/minefield-goreicide, we now have a new piece of Shoujo Tsubaki lost media! Link has been put with the rest of the search links!

UPDATE FOUR

It appears that the proshot has made its way onto YouTube. We have stated that we do not want the proshot in its entirety on YouTube out of respect for the creatives behind it. Though we understand that finding this piece of lost media is exciting and you may want to spread and share it, we also want to respect the creatives at KaitenHyakume at the same time. We want to make this known, uploading short clips and music numbers is okay but uploading proshots in their entirety isn’t. KaitenHyakume may not care that the proshot has made its way onto YouTube, but the search team does. We want to keep all respect for KaitenHyakume in tact.
