7th grade basketball

Congrats to the 7th grade girls who wrapped up their season yesterday with a 23-8 victory over the Clio Mustangs. The leading scorer for the Cavs was Kaylee Owens with 11. Olivia Mrva added 4 and Bella Schu 3. Brooklyn Kayanek and Kylie Reed scored 2 a piece, with Alexis Latuski rounding off the scoring with 1 point. This group gave it all they had EVERY game and got better every day! The team finished with an overall record of 9 wins and 2 losses. The future is bright for the Lady Cavaliers!

Cross Country

The Middle School Cross Country traveled back to Lapeer to compete in the Lapeer Halloween Invitational last night. The girls ran hard on the challenging course with Isla Sule leading the way for Corunna. She placed 43rd out of 104 girls. Dani Rivett was the other Corunna girl to place in the top 50 at the meet.

The boys' team started off dry but 1/2 mile into the race a big storm came crashing down making the course even more treacherous for the competitors. The team finished 2nd behind Oxford. Payton Chandler finished 3rd place, Earl Hansen finished 6th, Ben Hansen finished 8th, Nolan Carr finished 21st and Mckinley Springer finished 24th to earn medals. Ezra Nellis, Sarabdil Chauhan, and Caden Gwinn all finished in the top 50 runners. Next up for the Cavs is the Greater Lansing Middle School Championships on Monday.
