

THE COLEOPTERISTS SOCIETY

AN INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY
DEVOTED TO THE STUDY OF BEETLES

2021 (Virtual) Annual General Meeting

December 3rd , 2021

Registration (free!):

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/2021-coleopterists-society-annual-meeting-tickets-218089189637>

Program (all times are in EST = Eastern Standard Time in North America)

12:00–12:15 PM EST – Welcome and introduction

Crystal A. Maier cmaier@fas.harvard.edu

Museum of Comparative Zoology, Harvard University

President of The Coleopterists Society

12:15–12:35 PM EST – Which one is it? The creation of a key to the Elateridae of British Columbia, Yukon and Alaska

Scott Gilmore

Lantzville, British Columbia emubio@gmail.com

Winner of the 2021 Bell Research Award

12:35–12:55 PM EST – Defining color for Chrysochroa Jewel Beetle taxonomy

Able Chow and Nathan Lord

Department of Entomology, Louisiana State University; ablechow29@gmail.com

Winner of the 2021 Graduate Student Research Enhancement Award [Chow]

12:55–1:15 PM EST – All the Better to Smell You With: Firefly Antennal Sensilla Diversity

Yalena Pacheco

Department of Plant Biology, University of Georgia; yelena.marlese@gmail.com

Winner of the 2021 Graduate Student Research Program Award

1:15–1:35 PM EST – Assessing the old-growth dependency of two saproxylic beetle species in the southern Appalachian Mountains

Clayton Traylor, Mike Caterino, Mike Ulyshen, Mike Ferro, Joe McHugh

Department of Entomology, University of Georgia

New Social Media Team Member, 2021

1:35–1:55 PM EST – Beetles at the British Museum

Max Barclay

The Natural History Museum, London, UK

President-elect 2021

1:55–2:15 PM EST – Break

PLENARY SPEAKER

2:15–3:05 PM EST – From Natural to Logical: Unlocking the power of morphology with CALAO

Jennifer Girón

Department of Entomology, Purdue University; entiminae@gmail.com

Student Councilor (2019–2020) for The Coleopterists Society

3:05–3:30 PM EST – Break

3:30–4:30 PM EST – The Coleopterists Society 2021 business meeting

Crystal A. Maier cmaier@fas.harvard.edu

Museum of Comparative Zoology, Harvard University

President of The Coleopterists Society

4:30–6:00 PM EST – Social mixer