

Acknowledgements

The purpose of an acknowledgment is for a signer, whose identity has been verified, to declare to a notary or notarial officer that he or she has willingly signed a document.

The signer must physically appear before you.

You must positively identify the signer according to the state rules.

The signer may either sign the document before appearing before you, or in your presence.

The signer must declare (acknowledge) signing the document for its intended purpose.

CERTIFICATE OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The State of Texas

County of _____

Before me, _____, on this day personally appeared _____, know to me or proved to me on the oath of _____ or through _____ to the person whose name is subscribed to the foregoing instrument and acknowledged to me that he/she executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein expressed.

Given under my hand and seal of the office the _____ day of _____, 20____.

(Seal)

(Notary's Signature)

Notary Public, State of Texas

CERTIFICATE OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The State of Texas

County of _____

This instrument was acknowledged before me on _____ by

_____.

(Seal)

(Notary's Signature)

Notary Public, State of Texas