

IET SSLO Sample

Career Cluster & Occupation: Human Services–Community Interpreter

1. Students will be able to use expected procedures for interpreting, positioning, professional introductions, direct speech, and turn taking, adapting communication to the audience and context.
2. Students will be able to apply ethical principles of community interpreters such as confidentiality, accuracy, and professional conduct.
3. Students will demonstrate the ability to use textual and technical professional resources when needed.
4. Students will be able to apply knowledge of business practices related to community interpreting by creating a career plan and a professional identity.
5. Students will become self-reflective practitioners of the profession of interpreting by recognizing their own biases and mitigating their effects. They will demonstrate the ability to use culturally responsive practices.