

Similarities and Differences

Differences in "My name is Rez" book was that she lived in Kurdish and it wasn't a very nice place to live in and there was strict stuff in that country but where I live in New Zealand is a happy place and is nice. The 2nd similarities was that she can speak many different languages and I can't.

But a similarity that she had like me was that she likes netball and she plays it with her friends. Different similarities in "My name is Rez" book was that she lived in Kurdish and it wasn't a very nice place to live in and there was strict stuff in that country but where I live in New Zealand is a happy place and is nice. The 2nd similarities was that she can speak many different languages and I can't. But a similarity that she had like me was that she likes netball and she plays it with her friends.